A very pleasant function took place at St. John's Rectory, New Pitsligo, Scotland, lately, when a number of the members of the congregation met Miss Fowle, the head-mistress of the Girls' School, and her sister and presented them with parting gifts. The Rev. P. F. Young, the rector, presided and made the presentations. Miss Fowle was presented with a solid silver afternoon tea service and her sister, Miss J. I. Fowle, was presented with a handsome combined dressing and writing case. The former gift bore a suitable inscription. Miss Fowle has been the head-mistress of the Girls' School for the past nine years and her resignation is greatly regretted by the congregation.

There was a very large gathering at the annual social meeting of the congregation of St. Martin's, Glasgow, which was held recently. At this meeting Mr. Robert Young, who has been the treasurer of the congregation for the past 25 years, was presented with a purse of sovereigns and a gold Albert watch chain and cross and Mrs. Young also was presented with a very handsome silver tea-pot. Both the chain and the tea-pot bore suitable inscriptions. The Very Rev. the Dean of Glasgow made the presentations and the rector, the Rev. J. A. Ferguson, presided.

The missionaries in Shanland, Burma, make use of the talking machine by day and the magic lantern by night, as they attract an immense number of people, who, after their use for a time is over, remain to hear the Gospel preached, and to talk with the missionaries about the Christian religion, and many are converted. The magic lantern especially aids in this, as there are thrown upon the screen many beautiful coloured views of the life of Christ.

A Chinese Student Volunteer Movement has been organized. During the last two years over three hundred Chinese students in Christian colleges in China have pledged their lives to the ministry. These have now been organized into a band for the evangelization of China.

Canon J. M. Wilson, of Worcester, and formerly Archdeacon of Manchester, has just completed his seventy-fourth year. For some time he has been busy in arranging the ancient manuscripts at Worcester Cathedral. At the age of seventy he learned to decipher medieval documents, and a few days ago he lectured before the Worcester Archaeological Society, and explained the quaint carvings of the cathedral cloisters.

The Brotherhood of St. Andrew at their Convention held in Nashville, Tenn., proposed to raise $50,000 as a memorial to their deceased founder, the late Mr. J. L. Houghteling, the income to be used to support a traveling secretary. Mr. Charles M. Nye of St. Andrew's Church, Omaha, was chosen a member of the council for this year. Prayer and frequent communions were the leading thoughts emphasized during the convention.
