Little Workers Do Big Work with Old Dutch

Pots and Pans Cleaned in a Jiffy

Stop "Acid-Mouth" or Lose Your Teeth

There's no alternative. "Acid-Mouth" surely ruins teeth. And scientists estimate that nine out of every ten people have it.

There is one dentifrice that counteracts "acid-mouth" while it is cleaning the teeth and keeping them white.

Pebeco Tooth Paste

stops "acid-mouth" and thus helps to save the teeth. Ordinary dentifrices merely make the teeth look all right, without removing the cause of decay.

"Being a bank-president I am held responsible for investments. Pebeco is the soundest 'good-teeth-for-life' investment I ever made. Keeps disfiguring cavities and bad breath away."

In any case you will like Pebeco for its keen taste, its refreshing, beneficial effects.

Ten-day trial tube and acid test papers to test your mouth for acid—sent FREE.

"Tommie, wouldn't you like to go home with me?"

He looked right down at the floor. She said:—

"I will give you a hobby-horse and lots of playthings, and you will have a real nice time, and I will give you lots of nice things to do."

He looked right straight at the floor, did not pay any attention to it at all. She kept talking, persuading him, and by-and-by the little fellow looked up in her face and said:—

"Would you love a fellow?"

What tremendous pathos!

If we do not love one another, we do not love God, we do not know God, and God is not in us (1 John 4:16, 20). Do you recall the testimony of the heathen to the early Christians?

"Behold, how they love one another."

Would such be said to-day of your life, of your community, of your church? What a power to overcome the world if Christians but loved each other as God loves them! The world would swing into light if we but believed and practised this wondrous sentence,

"God is love."

"JESUS ONLY"

"And they sang a new song, saying, Thou art worthy."—Rev. v. 9.

Should He speak through your voice, or His love thrill your heart, Attribute the glory to Jesus; Remember, we're fruitless one moment apart, And we cease from abiding in Jesus.

If the Spirit should lead you to wonderful heights, Attribute the glory to Jesus; 'Tis because He descended to fathomless depths, That we're sharing the Throne-Life of Jesus.

If you're having, through faith, health of body and soul, Attribute the glory to Jesus; 'Tis the pow'r of your Saviour is keeping you whole, Divine Life is flowing from Jesus.

If 'tis victory to-day o'er the world, self, and sin, Attribute the glory to Jesus; For we know that the power of it all is within— The in-dwelling presence of Jesus. C. O.

NEW YEAR'S PARTY

A Chaplain's Joy.

The Rev. H. H. Coryton, Chaplain of the Missions to Seamen at Groningen, writes:—

"There are some events in one's life that leave an undying impression, and the children's party for the orphans of Groningen and the Belgian refugee children, given by the men of the Naval Brigade, will certainly be one of them. The whole scheme originated with the petty officers and men, who felt that so much kindness had been showered on them locally that they just wanted to do a little in return.

"It was an inspiration to see the thoroughness with which the preparations were gone into, and with that wonderful liberality which is so associated with the sea, the money was soon subscribed, and no small sum was needed, for every one of the 230 invited guests was to have a present, besides a good tea, plenty of sweets and fruit. The writer had the pleasant duty of inviting the children.

"In the meantime a strong committee formed from all the battalions were hard at work with all the details. Some undertook to decorate the dining hall, which for once really looked gay and festive; to others fell the important duty of arranging for the tea, and what in this department was most encouraging was the splendid response to the announcement placed on the notices, that gifts of food which had been sent from England to men would be gratefully received.

"Then, of course, there was the delightful but arduous task of buying the presents, and the choice of gifts really did great credit to the buyers. Everything was most attractive, and it was wonderful what variety had been obtained.

"Then came tea, and what a meal it was! The kiddies just gazed and gazed in utter bewilderment at the piles of good things before them. What a contrast to the beans! It was really hard work to get them to understand that they could begin. An orchestra from the town, who kindly gave their services, with the help of the "Collingwood" Battalion Band, made it all go with a swing. Then came the fun of the fair. Tables were moved, and into the excited company Father Christmas and several clowns appeared. Oh, the real, honest joy of it all! Who could help becoming young again and entering into it?

"It would be quite impossible to go into all the programme. Tipperary, of course, but sung with great effect by a Belgian girl. Then the sweet singing of the orphans, the jokes and frolic of the clowns. How they enjoyed it all! Then the attack on the huge Christmas-tree, for all must have some of the decorations. Last, but by no means the least, the presents. This was the climax, and what shall we say? Well, to be truthful, it was a scrum.—The Church Family Newspaper.

Twitching of the Nerves Broken-down System

Now Entirely Cured—Never Used Any Medicine With Such Benefit as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Headaches, sleeplessness and nervousness are often very disagreeable, but when your nervous system gets into such a condition that the nerves twitch and jerk, and you have peculiar nervous sensations come over you there is cause for grave alarm.

Everybody dreads the thought of paralysis or locomotor ataxia. Nothing is worse to look forward to than helplessness. Sometimes it is helplessness of body, and at other times the mind is affected, which is far worse.

The writer of this letter did not know what to expect, but fortunately began the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food in time to head off danger, and writes that she was entirely cured of the old trouble. The last paragraph proves that the cure was lasting.

Mrs. John McKellar, 11 Barton street east, Hamilton, Ont., writes:—"I was injured some years ago, and that left me with a broken-down nervous system. I could not sleep, and suffered from twitching of the nerves and disagreeable nervous sensations.

"I then began using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and can say that I never used any medicine that did me so much good; in fact, I am entirely cured of my old trouble. The Nerve Food not only strengthened the nerves, but also built up my system in every way."

Under more recent date Mrs. McKellar writes confirming her cure, and states that she has had inquiries from many people who had heard of the great benefits she obtained from Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.
