"Do you know," said the cheerful idiot, "that it is the easiest thing in the world to tell whether a man is going out on a journey or returning by the way he carries his portmanteau." "I never thought of that," said the simple young man. "What is the difference?" "It is just this way," he went on, "when a man is going away he carries his portmanteau towards the railway station, and when he is coming back he carries it in the other direction."

Representative John Sharpe Williams tells a story of a dandy in Mobile who recently became a convert to Christian Science. It appears, says Harper's Weekly, that meeting a friend on the street, the convert made inquiry touching the health of the former's aunt. "She's got de pleurisy pretty bad," was the answer.

"You and she are both wrong," was the solemn assertion of the convert. "As a matter of fact, she only thinks she got de pleurisy. Dere ain't no sich thing."

Nothing further was said on the subject, but a few days after, the two again meeting, the convert repeated his enquiries touching the aunt's condition. "Does she still persist dat she's got de pleurisy?"

"No, indeed," came the reply; "de pore woman now thinks dat she's dead. We buried her yesterday."
