AEROPLANE VIEW OF THE UNIVERSITY CAMPUS

By courtesy of the Royal Canadian Air Force ter-Cotton, owner of the "News-Ad- of British Columbia, and the great vertiser," was head of the Royal In- institution of learning on the banks stitution, and on its work becoming of the St. Lawrence. It was the remerged into that of the University, cognition of this fact that gave a became first Chancellor of the latter, peculiar fitness to selecting Sir Ar-There is thus a very real and close thur Currie, Principal of McGill, as connection between the University one of the representative speakers at the our own university was a the conferring on him of one of the vice to the cause of education on the acknowledgment of the splendid serfirst honorary degrees granted by recent inauguration, while

further