

large for all which they humbly hope, they would find relief in the Introduction of the Laws and Regulations relative thereto, existing in the Mother Country, under such restrictions as the situation and circumstances of the Country require, and the wisdom of Parliament may think fit. The Petitioners therefore humbly pray that the House will be pleased to take their situation, individually, and as connected with the general good of the country, into its serious consideration; and bring forward a Bill to grant such relief as to the House may seem fit and expedient.

On motion of Mr. Berthelot, seconded by Mr. Tellier,

ORDERED, That the proceedings of this House on the 2d day of April, 1800, relating to Charles Baptiste Bouc, Esquire, one of the Members of this House, be now read.

And the said proceedings were read.

ORDERED, That the proceedings of this House on the 23d and 24th of January, 1801, relating to the said Charles Baptiste Bouc, be now read.

And the said proceedings were read.

ORDERED, That the proceedings of this House on the 20th of March last, relating to the said Charles Baptiste Bouc, be now read,

And the said proceedings were read,

After which Mr. Bouc rose in his place and declared, that since the proceedings which have been now read, were had, he has procured the means of his Justification, and requested permission to submit the same to the House.

Mr. Coffin moved, seconded by Mr. Steel,
