

“a sudden and single turn will often prove useful to save a check.”

A good plan is to strike the “dodger’s” crosse down with the edge of your own; but so as not to hit the ball, which will forthwith jump into the air and give you a good chance of catching it.