The afternoon program was a carefully prepared address "The place of the Bunday School in Modern Education" by Rev. F. L. Farewell, B.A., of the Provincial Association of Toronto, The speaker illustrated his address by blackboard drawings which were very interesting. The first 25 years of a person's life was shown to be principally a preparatory stage, while after that limit it was one of accomplishments and putting into Missions in the Sunday School."

During the adjournment the ladies of the congregation entertained the visitors to lunch.

Promptly at 7.30 the evening session began, the church being comfortably filled below and in the galleries Mr. Farewell gave another splendid Division; Organised Bible Class; the Home Dept. and Teacher Training.

The afternoon program was a carefully prepared address "The place of the Sunday School in Modern Education" by Rev. F. L. Farewell, B.A., of the Provincial Association of Toaccomplishments and putting into foundation had been laid in earlier life.

The Sunday School was very clearly chairman, Rev. Mr. Spence on this development.

The Sunday School Institute for the townships of Hallowell, Hillier and Ameliasburg was held in the Methoday, the 20th of Jan. Two sessions were held, one beginning at 2 p.m. nad an evening session at 7.30.

The attendance at the afternoon meeting was not large but fairly representative of the townsh.ps. kev. H & Spence chairman of the district, presided at the sessions.

Rev. Mr. Williams of Consecon had charge of the opening proceedings after which Rev. Mr. Spence was introduced and took charge of the meeting. The church had been tastefully decorated for the occasion and everyone was loud in their praise

The better citizenship meetings beheld in Grace. Trinity and St. Anarew's churches are a huge success from the point of attendance,, at any Mr Gordon's addresses on the every day troubles of any community were highly appreciated and thoroughly enjoyed. His plain speaking, while some-what distasteful to some, are neces-sary if the community are to be led to see things as they really are and learn to apply the proper remedy.

Each night the meeting place has been packed, many having to stand up on every occasion. People from considerable distances are driving to town and lasting good should be the fre-sult of Mr. Gordon's visit to Napaneo.
