

His untimely death most deeply touches, not only his colleagues upon the com-mission, but the American people, who jointly share with the people of Great Britain in the great bereavement." Resolution Adopted. Mr. Fairbanks offered the following regolution: "That the senate has heard with profound sensibility of the death of Lord Farrar Herschell, an eminent jurist and statesman of Great Britain, formerly lord high chancellor, a member of the United States and British joint high commission; that the president of the senate be requested to convey to her majesty, the Queen of Great Britain, the sympathy of the senate of the United States, in the great loss which she and the people of Great Britain have sus-tained by the death of Lord Herschell." Mr. Gray (democrat), a personal friend of Lord Herschell, paid a high tributeto the dead statesman. He said that he possessed all that was best and highest in the British character, and was est teemed throughout the world as an eminut statesman.

eminent statesman. Mr. Hoar, as chairman of the judiciary committee, said of Lord Herschell that he was one of the very best on the long roll of great English chancellors.

He desired to pay his hearty tribute to him as a man, as a lawyer and as a statesman and to join in the senate's ex-pression to Great Britain of the sorrow felt here at his loss.

A High Mark of Respect.

The supreme court of the United States adjourned, immediately upon convening today, out of respect to the memory of Lord Herschell. The of respect to the memory of Lord Herschell. The death was announced to the bar by Chief Justice Fuller and an adjournment taken until tomor-row. In making the announcement the chief justice said: "It becomes my painful duty to announce to the members of the bar the sudden of england, information of which has just been received by the court with deep sensibility. Lord Herschell has been for some months in this coun-try in a public and international capacity, and but a few days have elapsed since he sat with us upon this beench, a compliment which has been extended only once previously, in the in-stance of the then lord chief justice of England.
