ALL ARE LINED UP FOR BATTLE ON 29 OF JUNE

Only a Few Ridings Left Where Conservatives Are Not in Field.

Another week will see candidates in the field in practically every riding in the province. In the Conservative camp more than 40 conventions were held during the past week, and there are now but twenty to be held.

The ridings in which conventions have been arranged for are: Carleton at Stittsville, June 18th; West Elgin at Dutton, June 15th; Grenville at Spencerville, June 16th; South Grey at Durham, June 12th; West Hastings at Trenton, June 11th; North Hastings at Marmora, June 18th; West Kent at Chatham, June 12th; South Lanark at Smiths Falls, June 12th; West Middlesex at Mount Brydges, June 11th; Prescott at Plantagenet, June 13th; Prince Edward at Perth, June 11th; North Kent at Pembroke, June 11th.

The central organization has yet to hear from two Hamilton ridings, London, Manitoulin, Fort William, Port Arthur, Rainy River and Russell.

Hon. I. B. Lucas had a day's rest yesterday but went on the "stump" again at night with a meeting at Bowmanville. To-day he will be at Wingham. Next week, Hon. Mr. Lucas will have one and two meetings every day, but they have not been definitely fixed.

"They are going ahead calling their meetings in the various ridings, and trusting to luck," said Hon. Mr. Lucas yesterday. "The result is we are jumping back and forth a great deal without any connected series of meetings. The Provincial Treasurer is in fine fettle for a campaign, and the fact that he has been practically living on trains for the past week and getting off them only to make addresses, does not seem to have bothered him at all.

Outlook is Bright

Hon. Mr. Hanna is being kept busy in the Western part of the province. To-day he will be at West Middlesex convention, speaking at Mount Brydges. On Friday he will attend the South Grey convention at Durham, and speak in the evening at Hanover. On Saturday he will wind up with the West Kent convention at Chatham.

The ministers at Queen's Park are quite optimistic about the outlook. Their travels during the past two weeks have satisfied them that Mr. Rowell has failed in his attempt to use the moral issue of temperance to further his party fortunes. The temperance issue is being freely discussed on Conservative platforms, and the progress of temperance reform under the sane legislative restrictions imposed by the Government is being clearly reviewed and emphasized. Mr. Rowell has set himself up as the champion of the temperance forces, but strong temperance opinion is supporting to a surprising extent the government candidates in their claims that the Whitney Government is a temperance Government working for the advancement of temperance reform in a commonsense, practical way that means permanency and the avoidance of the dangers that go with abolition of the bar unaccompanied by the abolition of shop licenses.

WILL GET FINE

MONTREAL, June 12.—B. Couchman, the Royal's Cincinnati recruit twirler, who threw the ball over the grand stand in a fit of anger when summoned from the box by Manager Branchfield in yesterday's game with Toronto, is being handed out a stiff fine and probably a suspension too by President Lichtenheim for his insubordination.

C.P.R. ACCIDENT

MEDICINE HAT, Alta., June 12.—One workman was killed and seven others were badly injured in an accident on the Canadian Pacific Railway irrigation works at Brooks, Alberta, when the trestle work of a large cement viaduct gave way and fell forty feet to the ground.

SCENES DURING MILITANT SUFFRAGETTE RIOTS IN ENGLAND--WHERE "BOBBIES" HAVE THEIR HANDS FULL.

CAPTIVES AFTER THE RAID

Herewith are pictured some of the many turbulent scenes of May 21, when militants, headed by Mrs. Pankhurst, marched on Buckingham Palace, determined to present a petition to the King. Headed by Mrs. Pankhurst and Miss Sylvia Pankhurst, the flying squad of women swept down Constitution Hill toward the palace, but when half way along they met the most hated enemy of the militants in the person of Inspector Riley, who has charge of the suffragette detail at the Scotland Yard Police Headquarters. The shock of the combat was short but sharp and resulted in the arrest of many women, who in the fighting used clubs with facility. One group, headed by Miss Sylvia Pankhurst, reached a point almost across the drive from the palace, where mounted police surrounded the women and placed Miss Sylvia and several of her comrades in custody. The total arrests numbered fifty-seven.

SUFFRAGETTE RAIDERS AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE

THREE "BOBBIES" TO ONE SUFFRAGETTE

Buckingham Palace resembled more a mobilization centre than the peaceful home of royalty. Two ambulance corps were on the scene, and both male and female nurses found plenty to do with cases of fainting among the spectators. Mrs. Pankhurst was among those arrested. She was taken to Holloway Jail for breaking the terms of the license under which she was last arrested.

MR. T. F. BEST SPEAKS

Former Secretary Brantford Y.M.C.A., and Noted Temperance Man, Strong for Whitney.

"I am anxious to see the bars abolished, but I am not anxious to see the best temperance government Ontario ever had abolished. I think that the Whitney government has done more for the temperance cause than the Liberals did all the time they were in power, and I think a change at the present time would not be desirable. No man in Hamilton is stronger for temperance than I am, but I believe that there is nothing to be gained by dragging the issue into politics. We are gaining our point slowly but surely, and the Whitney government is doing more for us every day. Let well enough alone."

In those words, T. F. Best, secretary of the Y.M.C.A. at Hamilton, and formerly secretary of the Y.M.C.A. in this city, told where he stood in the matter of the present provincial campaign. He was not sure that the promises made by the Liberals would be carried out, whereas the Whitney government had shown that it was willing to do all in its power for the cause.

The Liberals made a request that they be allowed to have rooms in the Y.M.C.A. for headquarters, but both Mr. Best and the executive felt that the institution should not be dragged into politics under the temperance cry, and the offer was given a deserved turn-down.

FIERCE RUNAWAY

Little Girl Was Knocked Down--Constable Made a Good Stop.

A very exciting and what might easily have proved a disastrous runaway occurred on Market street this morning just before the circus parade appeared and when the crowd was its thickest. A horse belonging to the Brantford Scrap Iron Co., becoming frightened near the T. H. and B. station broke away from the cart and dashed up Market street at a break-neck speed and right into the crowd standing on the sidewalk. Only the fact that someone yelled and the crowd separated somewhat, someone would surely have been killed or seriously injured. As it was a little girl was knocked down but fortunately was not injured and was handed back to her mother by Constable Blower who when he saw the frightened animal dash up on the sidewalk can and grabbed it and prevented further mishaps. Two women in the crowd fainted and for the moment there was great excitement.

THE BIG CIRCUS DRAWS IMMENSE CROWDS ALL DAY

Ringling Bros., Bigger and Better Than Ever, Got in This Morning.

"Here she comes, fellers!" This announcement passed from boy to boy lined up on the curb as Ringling Brothers' big circus parade, bands playing and wagons creaking, appeared downtown today. Elephants, clowns, band, snake charmer and all the rest were there. After several thousand urchins had tagged the big procession to the show grounds, it was pronounced "the best ever."

Grown folk were on hand, too. With little girls clinging to them, mothers and fathers became as restless and excited as the younger ones. Circus day had hardly dawned when people began coming into the city. All railways and country roads led to the blue pennant city. All of the railroads brought in excursions on special trains and long before the parade reached down town the streets were thronged with people. The Ringling Brothers' have always kept their promises and their loudly heralded street parade was another proof that their word is good. No more glittering and brilliant display has ever been made in this city. The parade nearly three miles in length was an unending array of novelties, light and color. The famous Ringling horses, both in the teams and the cavalcades, mounted by men and women in the gorgeous costumes, made a splendid showing. Pretty and effective pictures were made by the tabular cars which were filled with girls in gay garb. There was plenty of music and our old friends, the clowns

STRAIGHT FROM PULPIT

Rev. Dr. S. Banks Nelson Tells What He Thinks of Rowellism at Present Time.

Here are a few of the pitiful utterances of Dr. S. Banks Nelson which disconcerted the Grit managers of Dr. Davey at Hamilton: "There is certainly good sense in the Conservative argument that if you can't get a good majority of the people behind you, you can't abolish the bar."

"If the great bulk of the people are not with us, it is too soon for this reform."

"Whatever we proposed, we must see that it does not lead to the establishment of blind pigs."

"The Liberal party will not dare to abolish the bar unless something like three-fifths of the people are behind the movement."

"Should there be a Liberal victory by a small majority, I believe it would be disastrous to try to abolish the bar."

MR. COCKSHUTT EXPLAINS

In Reference to His Visit to Ham & Nott Factory in Hydro Campaign.

In reference to the Courier report of Mr. Cockshutt's speech last Saturday, in which he made reference to his visit with Mr. Gordon Wilson, M.P., to the Ham & Nott factory in the Hydro by-law campaign, Mr. Cockshutt pointed out yesterday that from the report it might appear that Mr. John Ham was in the building, but failed to appear. Mr. Cockshutt states that that was not correct. He and Mr. Wilson were given to understand that by waiting Mr. Ham would turn up. They waited a full hour and a half, but Mr. Ham did not appear.

Twelve men and six women, all over 70 years old, were confirmed on Blackwell's Island by Bishop Greer.

MILITANTS ARE MORE ACTIVE THAN EVER

They Tried to Burn Down Ancient Church of St. Margarets Today.

(By Special Wire to The Courier)

LONDON, June 12.—A determined attempt was made by militant suffragettes this morning to burn the ancient church of St. Margarets, at Chipstead, about fourteen miles to the southeast of London. Three distinct fires, fed by fire fighters composed of squares of felt saturated with oil, were set by the "arson squad." The rector, the Rev. William H. Stone, and the villagers were soon on the scene and were able to extinguish the flames before much damage had been done to the church which dates from the 12th century. Expressions of anger at the vandalism of the militant suffragettes were more vehement than ever to-day among the general public, which roused to a state of intense excitement by the details of yesterday's attempt to blow up the historic coronation stone and chair in Westminster Abbey. Demands for the drastic punishment of the women engaged in this campaign of destruction were heard on every side, the leniency of the government in releasing women criminals after a few days' detention in jail was generally condemned.

The hope was widely expressed that Reginald McKenna's suggestion of the prosecution of subscribers to the funds of the militant suffragette organization would stop to a large extent the flow of income to the coffers of the women engaged in the widespread activities undertaken by them socially. It is known that much of the money handed over by the largest subscribers is sent in with the earmark "education." Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the militant leader being left to decide what that means. It is believed, however, that the clause in the bill will not prevent the law-revenging persons who provide the funds used for crime.

Closer examination to-day of the coronation chair in Edward the Confessor's chapel in Westminster Abbey, showed that the damage was very small and easily repaired. The coronation stone was not injured at all. In fact most of the damage done affected the wall of the chapel behind the chair.

The Abbey was open as usual today, except for the chapel where the bomb was placed, and in an immense amount of soot dust fell as the result of the explosion. A large congregation, composed mostly of women, attended morning service. Extensive precautions were taken, and every visitor was closely scrutinized. The police have a description of a number of women who were seen in the vicinity before yesterday's explosion, but no arrests has yet been made.

Over 1200 Have Got On Voters' List

The heaviest registration in the history of the riding of South Brant is being gotten out for the approaching provincial election. No less than 1277 voters had placed their names on the list up to 1 o'clock to-day, the registration in Ward One and Two and Three being particularly heavy and most gratifying to the Conservative forces. Last night was a record. To-day the registration is not so heavy, but is proceeding briskly enough. Those not on the list have until 10 o'clock Saturday night to register. A few appeals are being entered and will be heard on Wednesday next before Judge Hardy.

Table with 2 columns: Ward, Number of Voters. Ward One: 232, Ward Two: 247, Ward Three: 266, Ward Four: 203, Ward Five and Four: 162, Ward Five: 165.

Total: 1277. To amuse his newly married sister David Lange rocked a boat on the Hudson. A motor boat rescued the party.
