This is from the Charlottetown Guardian: A person presented a prize for something I have not heard what. It was really handsome. It was handed to the teacher, and the teacher handed it to the gentleman presiding, and he in turn presented it to the little fellow whose oval fairly danced with delight at receiving such a reward of merit.

Local and Provincial.

Mr. John E. Woodworth, of the Berwick Register, paid us a call on Tuesday.

We learn that Mr. Spencer has the contract for building the W. & A. R. engine shed at Annapolis.

Seavey's East India Liniment, that wonderful Oriental remedy, is for sale at Rand's Drug Store. Price 25 cents.

Mr. C. A. Patruquin showed us a plum blossom this week which grew upon this year's growth of wood in his garden.

The Rev. Canon Brock preached in Halifax last Sunday, in St. Luke's in the morning and in St. Stephens in the evening.

William Porter, of Pearsan, fell from the scaffolding of the Canada on Saturday last and was seriously injured. Hopes of his recovery were slight at last accounts.

Mr. C. F. A. Patterson, of Horton Landing, has recently procured an excellently bred Jersey bull. He is bred from the Hartz stock at Baddeck, C. B., of the service of which cost $100. Anyone wishing the services of this fine animal should communicate with Mr. Patterson.

Strawberries have come into town in very limited quantities up to the present time, owing to the lateness of the season and the high market prices in Halifax and St. John. From reports we understand that the yield will be up to the average, and as they are now rapidly ripening, prices will be lower in the course of a few days.

Lee Cream Freezers, Lawn Mowers and other reasonable household hardware at Brown's.

We are indebted to Miss Julia Reed, Secretary of the Student's League of the Owens Art Institution of St. John, N. B., for a neat and attractive booklet, published in the interests of the above named institution for the purpose of drawing the attention of the public, and more especially of the members of the Student's League, to an Art Sale and exhibition to be held in St. John from Sept. 23d to Oct. 3d, and which we feel assured will prove a grand success, as the committee of management contains the names of many prominent citizens of St. John, as well as residents in other parts of the Dominion, United States and Europe. The high standing maintained by the Owens Art School for many years, with its course of study, based on the system in use in the best Art Schools of Europe, its proficient principle—a professional artist of high standing—and its reasonable terms of tuition, entitle it to the hearty co-operation and sympathy of all those interested in "Art Culture," by means of which a love for all the beauties of nature and art is fostered and encouraged by their refining and elevating influences.

Canard Items.

Messrs W. B. and L. R. Burbidge are remodeling and making an addition to their large barn. They have changed its position, raised it up from the ground and built a lintel on the whole of its length. When completed it will be one of the best and largest barns on the street and will add materially to the looks of their farm. The dimensions are 72x44.
