Edmonton, Alberta, refused to "take its punishment lying down". The city council requests that the province give the city 50 per cent. of motor license fees collected from city residents and that the city be allowed to charge another fee of $10 for each motor car and $5 for a horse, for upkeep of the roads. Then it is also suggested that the government give the city half of the amusement tax.

The Baptist Sunday School, favored with ideal weather, enjoyed a delightful picnic Wednesday afternoon. They mustered almost the full membership. They were provided with autos in which they toured the surrounding country, Kentville, Canning and the "Look Off" being points touched en route. They returned to the church banquet hall, where a magnificent spread awaited them. The members of the Men's League Bible Study Class were included and seemed rejuvenated by their happy association with the joyful juveniles.
