MEET MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT

Local Delegation Returns Home Very Enthusiastic—Much Good Has Been Done

Ottawa, March 2—The Maritime Province delegation, addressed itself Thursday evening to the members of the parliament, irrespective of political belief.

J. D. McKenna, M. P. P., said the delegates deprecated talk of secession, but it is fair to say that there is a blaze which can be stamped out, but which if given sufficient air, may some day turn into a prairie fire. He declared the Maritime Provinces, in common with the rest of the Dominion had paid millions of dollars for the building of railways in Canada, for the creation of canals and for the payment of the acquisition of western lands. It is only fair that the rest of Canada should realize that the Maritime Provinces were entitled to receive due consideration. He opposed the diversion of Canadian trade through Portland, Me., and New London, Conn., and declared it was time that the heads of the Canadian National system should be taught that these ports were not in Canada but that Saint John, Halifax, Quebec and Montreal were.

Premier Veniot said the delegation advocating better conditions for the Maritime Provinces did not come here on an begging expedition. He admitted that there was a feeling of discontent down by the sea, but in neither was there any question of secession. He declared that inclination on the part of the Federal Government was to look at the national debt but he believed that there should be no fear of bonding the credit of the country to carry on work that would bring about general prosperity.

Mayor Murphy of Halifax, who concluded the discussion was of the opinion that whatever result might come from the present conference, would be due to consideration on the broadest possible angle. "No man," he said, "can make any progress toward the forwarding of a cause when it views it only from his own selfish viewpoint."

Mayor Sanson, Quebec; L. W. Simms, and J. E. Tighe, Saint John, addressed the meeting.

COLDSTREAM.

Coldstream, N. B., March 2—S. S. Page returned to Detroit last week after spending two months with his family here.

We are sorry to report that W. C. Craig is confined to his home with laryngitis.

Quite a number of the men who are working in the lath mill here, spent Sunday at their various homes.

The special meetings came to a close Sunday evening. Mr. Tagley returned to his home in N. S., Monday. We were all sorry to have him leave us, as he made many warm friends while here.

Mrs. Fred Nevers, Jr., was calling Mrs. Hatfield Shaw last Wednesday. This community was aroused from its slumbers Saturday night, finding itself being rocked in their beds. Most severe quake that was ever felt here.

Claude Estabrooks returned to his school Mon. morning in Mainstream.

BATH

Bath, N. B., March 2—The residents of Bath are not easily shocked, but in the last hours of the last day of February, they did receive a severe shock, which will not be very soon forgotten. It was not the effect of the proclamation that the legislative session would meet in March to provide for new taxation. Nor was it the result of Premier Veniot's promise to dry up the Province, which, judging by the farmers' talk, he has almost succeeded in doing; and we know that on Saturday Bath was as dry as the desert, so that there was no possibility that the trouble arose here. Neither was it caused by the return of our delegates from Ottawa, where they certainly made the Government sit up and take notice that there were a few orators still left down in old New Brunswick. We know now, after the event, that this shock was caused by a species of colic, to which this old earth is periodically subject. The spasm while it lasted, was intense.

The shock some who had retired for the night, out of bed, to see what effect this jazz motion had on domestic utensils and parlor fixings. The shock lasted for but a minute, but the sensation was not so brief. The earth wave appeared to be travelling north and south and increased in intensity as it travelled.

Mr. and Mrs. John Fulton visited their daughter, Mrs. Hazen Kilpatrick last Sunday. Mrs. Fulton managed to break through the ice near the other shore and got considerably wet, but finished the trip, and is none the worse for the accident.

The remains of Edward Boyd, late of Johnville, were brought from the Fisher Memorial Hospital on Saturday. Mr. Boyd was a highly respected pioneer who carved a home out of the green woods, many years ago. Councillor Boyd is a son. Interment at Johnville Cemetery.

Mrs. H. W. Crain and Mrs. S. Squires visited Mrs. Jane Derrah of West Glassville this week. Mrs. Derrah had the misfortune to fall on the ice and injure her back, and has been suffering much pain ever since. Mrs. Harry Giberson, a daughter, has been in attendance.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Archie Derrah—a baby girl.

The stork also visited the home of Fred McLaughlin, about the same time.

Mrs. John Murphy left for Limestone to wait on her daughter, same reason.

Matt. Bohan and Miss Mary Ann Bohan, who were down with the flu, are now recovered, although the effects remain.

C. E. Gallagher, who has been sick for some time, is, at last report, somewhat better.

Elbridge Eastman and his colored artistes entertained a fair-sized audience on Saturday evening at the Ellice Theatre. On Sunday evening a sacred concert, silver collection, on Monday evening, with change of program.

Proposed Women's Missionary Aid meeting at the home of Mrs. John Fulton on Wednesday afternoon.

Monday evening, special meeting of stockholders of Consolidated Telephone Co., Ltd., at Bath. Stanley Barker in the chair.

G. W. Parker has a crew getting out logs from his farm.

EARTHQUAKE FELT SATURDAY NIGHT

Five Distinct Shocks Felt Here—Centre of Disturbance was Quebec Where Much Damage Was Done

Five distinct shocks were felt in Hartland. The earthquake which affected most of North America Saturday evening, was very severe in this locality. Old residents claim this to be the worst experienced in recent years. Five distinct shocks were felt, the first at 8:20 p. m., and the last at 3:20 a. m. These figures are unofficial but there appears to be sufficient evidence to substantiate the statement that five tremors were felt, the ones at 10:20 and 3:20 being the worst.

The 10:20 one was the most generally felt and knocked chairs over, upset bottles in stores, caused several chimney tops to fall and scared a big percentage of the populace.

The shocks through the night were not intense with the exception of the one at 3:20 which woke many people and caused quite a few dishes which had become loosened by earlier quakes, to fall with considerable clatter. The sensation as noted over the radio was a terrific rumbling interruption with squeals of violent static.

Starts Clock

Fredericton, March 2—One of the peculiarities in connection with the earthquake was the starting of an old grandfather's clock which had not run for more than 40 years. The clock belonged to Mrs. H. H. Gutter, University Avenue and has been regarded as a precious heirloom. Several clock experts have inspected the clock from time to time, but although they found the mechanism perfect, they were unable to succeed in making it function. Immediately following the earthquake the clock started to run.
