There is some dissatisfaction in the Inter-City League, and it is all at the Hamilton end.

It has been suggested that the clubs divide the net gate receipts equally after each game, or that the Brantford clubs pay the travelling expenses of the Hamilton nines.

Kid McCoy writes to the New York Telegraph that the Parisians have been bamboozled by fake fights, and he intends to give them some on the level.

English papers, just to hand, contain an account of the defeat of Kerr's great rival, Reggie Walker, on his first appearance in England.

Mr. Crocker has unbounded faith in Kerr. As the manager of the Canadian Olympic team in England last year, he was not only in close touch with the Hamilton boy, but he made as close a study of Reginald E. Walker as any person as well versed in men and athletics could while they were neighbors at Shepherd's Bush.

As to Walker's defeat at Abergavenny Mr. Crocker thought that he would likely be in bad shape so soon after the long trip by boat from South Africa.

J. Johnson is hinting that he will under wraps in his bout with O'Brien, and did not cut loose with any fancy stuff, so that he would not tip off his battery secrets to the unemployed.

Judge Monck, of the H. J. C., Dr. Andrew Smith, D. J. C., Geo. M. Hendrie, of Windsor, President Madigan of the Niagara Racing Association and Secretary W. P. Fraser left for Montreal last night to attend a meeting of the Canadian Racing Associations.

PUNKY OUT OF MONEY

Killing With Hamilton Horse Failed.

Little Hammond Rode Long Shot in Second.

Toronto Won and Lost Yesterday.

Montreal, June 16.—Between the high wind that was blowing and the sun, the track at Blue Bonnets dried out so that it was in fair shape for the afternoon racing.

The steeplechase furnished the best contest of the afternoon, the finish bringing the vast throng in the grand stand to their feet, yelling encouragement to Stone, the rider of Nat B. There were only three starters in the race with the last entry, Economy, a strong favorite.

A delegation from Hamilton was present to see the sister stable try to put Punky over again, and the horse was heavily played at 2 and 3 to 1.

The usual 35 books were stationed in the ring and the quotations offered against the chances of the numerous starters were more liberal than on any of the previous days.

"It's what you want—when you want it"

The Way of To-day The Semi-ready Way. If you really believed that you could get better clothes—delivered to you the day you want them—better tailored and designed—better fitted than the retail tailor can fit you—then you would adopt the way of to-day: The Semi-ready way.

How can you tell, if you don't try? Better still, ask a Semi-ready customer. There are thousands of them—regular customers—who will cheerfully say: "We'd never wear anything but Semi-ready."

KETCHEL A WONDER.

He Has Taken Fitzsimon's Place. Stanley Has Invented a New Style.

Bob Edgreen, of the New York World, writes: There's a new wonder among the fighting men, and Stanley Ketchel has risen to the pinnacle formerly occupied by the great and only Robert Fitzsimmons, the middleweight champion of today.

Ketchel's quick defeat of crafty Jack O'Brien was a result of any fluke or "lucky punch." It was a carefully planned and perfectly executed battle, so far as Ketchel's end of it is concerned.

That's just the point of it, Ketchel has invented a new style of fighting, and it is far ahead of the old straight jab and away game. Fitzsimmons beat all the middleweights and heavyweights of his time (barring Jeffries) by using a shift. Ketchel shifts, too, but he is continually shifting.

That's about as far as the other fighters can get. Ketchel has left an opening for Ketchel's left fist. Either jaw or body is sure to be uncovered. Ketchel is already shifting for 89, so that on the first inning neither side could claim much advantage.
