

NEWCASTLE WALLOPS CAMPBELLTON

SPORTS

AD. WOLGAST DEFEATS OWEN MORAN

The Newcastle Ball team journeyed to Campbellton on Saturday, there met the All Star Campbello... aggregation, and spoiled their prospects of ever being champions of New Brunswick.

Oh, joy. Look out for revenge at Richibucto, now.

Say, Linton sure did make them beat the air some.

Now, You knockers, come out in the open, and say the Newcastle boys can't play ball.

Well, We thought Campbellton could play ball to hear the "Graphic" talk, but Oh Slush.

There is no truth in the rumor that Newcastle has challenged Detroit for the World's championship.

Practice was what the boys wanted and when they got it look what they did. (It makes us snicker.)

Fred Cameron won from Johansen, the Swede, by three-quarters of a lap, in 1.10.13, in a 12 mile race, at Amherst on Saturday.

Linton and Graham were wanted by Chatham to stack up against Fredericton, but believe in patronizing home industry. Well, done boys!

Fredericton won from Chatham in two good games on Monday by the scores of 5-4 and 12-5. Kind of puts a damper on Chatham's championship aspirations. Don't it?

Sam Langford, the Canadian negro heavyweight, knocked out Jack Fitzgerald, a Philadelphia "white hope," in a scheduled ten round bout at the National Sporting Club, New York, Thursday night.

On a wet wicket St. John defeated Chatham in a cricket match at Chatham Thursday by an inning and ten runs; Victor Cousins, who played with St. John, is a son of Rev. Dr. Cousins of Newcastle.

TRADE MARK DECISION

British Columbia Supreme Court Promptly Ordered the Delinquents to Change Their Name or Quit Business.

Half a dozen local men in Vancouver recently sought to secure a provincial charter under the name of Semi-ready, Limited, for the purpose of tailoring and selling high-class garments. The Supreme Court of British Columbia was promptly appealed to by the Semi-ready Company, of Montreal, and this judgment was recorded:

"This court doth order and adjudge that the name of the defendant be changed so that the name 'Semi-ready' do not appear therein, and that until such change is effected by the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies the defendant be restrained from carrying on any business in the Province of British Columbia under the name of the 'Semi-ready Ltd.', similar to that carried on by the plaintiff."

The "Semi-ready" name covers articles of all kinds for men's wear, and for women's wear, and the registered rights are vested in the Semi-ready garments.

Alfred Wood, vice-president of the Semi-ready, Limited, and a director in other corporations in Montreal said: "We got quick action. Most people do not. I am going to work hard for a Business Men's Court, where transgressions against the honor and integrity of the moral business code will be dealt with by trained business men, by men of stainless business reputation. Every profession has such a domestic court, and the industrial or business profession is the highest type of occupation in any civilized country. Such a court would be business-like and quick, would be sound in its view and certain in its directions. It would not be hampered by heavy rules of practice and procedure, nor delayed by any admiration for the traditions of the kindergarten age of commerce."
