We envy the rising generation. There is dawning upon parents and educationists a realization of the nec essity of music in character building. in nation building and in developing citizenship. No home and no school should be without music. Music will keep boys and girls at home when parental commands fail.

The study and practice of music develops the child mentally and physically. It makes the boy or girl more nimble of mind, trains him to think rapidly and accurately, trains the eye and the ear, teaches discipline. Music gradually is gettng on to the curriculum of public and high schools and the time is coming when it will not be necess ary for parents to bear the expense of private musical instruction for

Power Gains Eighteen Pounds --Rheumatism Disappears After Taking Tanlac

"I consider what Tanlac has done for ne to be worth more than a fortune, "said George Power, of Halifax, Nova Scotia hile talking to the Tanlac representative few days ago. Mr. Power lives at 20-1-2 Rottonberg St., Halifax, has lived in N.S. all his life and is a well known employe of the Nova Scotia Tram and Power Co.

"I've actually gained eighteen pounds since taking Tanlac, and I feel better in every way than I have in twenty-eight ong years, and what's more I have spent nundreds and hundreds of dollars on medcines and never got a particle of good until I found Tanlac," continued Mr Power, "I had rheumatism in both my legs from the knees down, and in damp weather I just had to stay at home from work. My ankles bothered me too, and I don't believe anybody in the world ever suffered from rheumatism as bad as I did for it was just a sharp shooting pain that would go through my knees, down my legs and into my ankles like somebody was sticking a knife through me, and I would be in such agony that I would turn as white as a sheet. When these attacks came on me I would't be able to sleep a wink but would roll and tumble all night long, and my joints would swell and my knees would be as stiff as a board and I couldn't walk a step for two or three days at a time and would be laid up at home flat of my back with my knees so stiff I couldn't bend them at all.

"I noticed where Tanlac was being highly recommended by people right here in Halifax, so I decided to try it, And I wouldn't take anything in the world for the good it has done me. If anybody don't believe that I am a well man, and that the rheumatism has left me entirely and that I never feel even a trace of it just tell them to see me. My appetite has picked up and I have gained in weight. and feel better in every way and can sleep fine at night. Tanlac is the greatest thing I have ever seen, and I want you to publish this statement for I want everybody to know what this medicine will do."

Tanlac is sold in Newcastle by E. J Morris, and in Redbank by Wm. M Sullivan.

N.B. Man Won High Honors

ment from official life of Sir Thomas Holderness, C.C.B., K.S.I. permanent ers will appreciate the series of Under-Secretary for India. A dinner was given to Sir Thomas at the Savoy Hotel, the seventy-five guests invited to meet him including his old chiefs, both in India and at Whitehall, among them Lord Curzon of Kedlestone, Lord Morley, Lord George Hamilton, and Mr. Austen Chamberlain, the members of the India Council and past and present colleagues of Sir Thomas at the India Office. New Brunswickers will be interested in knowing that the distinguished gentleman thu honored is a native of Kent county. He was born in 1849 at Kingston, (now Rexton), within a few miles of the spot where Andrew Bonar Law, now government leader in the House of Commons, first saw light. Sir Thomas's father was a merchant, a member of the firm of Holderness & Chilton. Mr. Holderness came from England, and married a sister of the Six Thomas is therefore a first cousin of two hundred of alloy.

Inquiry At Chatham Concluded

The investigation into the charge against the Prohibition Inspectors ham. The Commission held by the Chief Inspector issued by the Pro-Secretary was dated December 12th.

The evidence of David Johnstone Philip McIntyre, Adam Dickison and Dickison was taken on Monday and addresses made by the cour

The argument used by counsel for the G. W. V. A was that there was more force used than necessary.

Mr. P. J. Hughes who represents letter, which was published in the press and argued that the Rev. Mr. Bate's evidence did not support the ents made in his letter.

Mr. Hughes showed that Barry Gatain admitted having violated law and showed that Gatain, on his own evidence was standing with a bottle in his hand when the Inspectors appeared. He then showed from the evidence, that it was Barry who started the row. In reply to the argument of Mr. Doiron as to more force being used than was necessary, he showed that this was a matter which was not so earfly judged. In a matter of this kind the question arose, "Who is going to decide what force is necessary"?-the officer making the arrest, or the party or parties to be arrested. He then showed that if an officer did not use enough force to arrest his prisoner, then the law would be in contempt.

The Rev. W. D. Wilson, Chief Inspector, made no comment; but declared the court closed.

An echo of the German sea raid-ers comes from the South Pacific. There on the coast of Lord Howe is Atlantic fame two years ago. According to reports, the raider is to be sold by auction by the French goverament. Though her hull is badly damaged the Secadler's engines are in good condition, and there is also a large quantity of hawsers, tanks, and other equipment. The famous raider was at one time the barque Pass of Balmaha, of 1,571 tons. After her cap-ture by the Germans the latter fitted her out with powerful Diesel oil en-gines of 120 horsepower.

"Katie" is the seldiers' stuttering song. When little Mary first heard it she was amazed for she did not think that anyone except her little playmate Ruth stuttered. But when she heard it again and again she began to understand its nature. One day after hearing it she went to her older sis-"Margaret," she began, you bet Ruth could sing 'Katie' better than anybody you know?

Less Silver in Coin From Canadian Mint

Ottawa, Jan. 11-The silver con tained in Canadian silver coins is greatly reduced by an order published in the Canada Gazette, which says that "On and after January 1, 1920 the standard for silver coins of the currency of Canada shall be that of late George McLeod, then engaged in one thousand parts of weight, eight business and politics in Kent county, and hundred shall be of fine silver and George K. McLeo. Young Holderness was sent to England to be educated, and cearly entered the civil service.

The former standard was sent to England to be educated, and at that rate Canadian and British silver coins had the highest allver content of those of any country. The part of those of any country. The part of those of any country. The part of those of any country.

Sir Henry Drayton, minister of finance said last night that this woulk consulted a doctor who gave me medicine, but it proved fruitless as I was level as that of many other countries away in weight, until I only weighed the rise in the price of bar silver to with fain fing spells, and finally felt coins had been disappearing from
