Interesting Letter From Woman in South Africa

Johannesburg, South Africa.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for weakness and because I felt run down. I tried a lot of medicines before I tried yours. One day I was standing on my stoop when a boy came up to me and handed me one of your little books. I read the book and the next day my husband went to the chemist's and bought me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I have taken the medicine ever since and I feel quite strong and well now as I am on the sixth bottle. I have written to my sister and told her all about the wonders it has done for me, and I am quite willing for you to use my name as I can not thank you enough for what it has done for me."—Mrs. W. P. Rush, 128 6th Ave. Mayfair, Johannesburg, South Africa.

It is this sort of praise of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, given by letter or verbally, one woman to another, that ought to commend this splendid medicine to you. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a medicine for women's ailments (in use nearly fifty years), and the fact that it has helped thousands of other women, should cause you to give it a trial now. It can be safely taken by any woman—young or old.

THE KITE IS UP

(St. John Standard)

The Legislative Assembly has now been in session for three weeks, and the public has been eagerly scanning the reports of the proceedings in the hope for some evidence of the Government's reported intention to make some changes in the present law relating to the sale of liquor. The Premier has been studiously silent on the subject, Mr. Veniot likewise, and no other member of the Executive has made any reference to the matter.

However, it seems a kite was placed in the hands of Mr. Magee, and he sent it sailing aloft yesterday afternoon. It is up to the public now to say what they think of it, and how it looks from the road.

Mr. Magee handled his kite very delicately, as though he were afraid of some breeze coming up which might upset its equilibrium. Here is what the Official Report credits him with saying:—

Members on both sides seemed to fight shy of discussing prohibition. He did not see why the subject should not be discussed in a sensible and businesslike manner. Prohibition was imposed on the Province by an Act passed some time before, under which a Provincial Commission sold liquor to the vendors, who in turn sold at retail on physicians' prescriptions. There was a strong group in the Province which supported this system. Other groups differed, and held the opinion that the Province should control not only wholesale dealing in liquor, but also the retailing, by means of dispensaries and permits. That was the system in force in Sweden, which he believed to be the best in the world. He was speaking in the best interest of temperance. He believed in temperance not only in the use of liquor, but in all other habits. What course should be adopted in New Brunswick? Should the present system be continued, or should there be adoption of a permit system, with a limit per month and a limit to certain ones in the Province? There was criticism of the Prohibition Act. But its enforcement was carried out by independent inspectors at an annual cost of $70,000, with an annual revenue of $101,000. Those figures showed that prohibition was not a fact, but was merely academic. No one within sound of his voice could truthfully deny that statement. What was needed was for the House to discuss this subject from a business point of view, and not for political purposes. He knew that members of the party represented opposite, including senators and other prominent men, were favorable to a change which would extend Government control of sale of liquor, and the same was true upon his own side of the House. The measure should be discussed in a sensible way, to the end that a solution might be reached in the interests of temperance and temperance people.

"CANOPIC" HAS MANY BIG FEATURES

When the White Star Dominion liner Canopic arrives in the St. Lawrence this spring she will be for all practical purposes a new ship, according to advice received by the Company from their Liverpool office, indicating that the ship is at present being thoroughly overhauled and refurnished from stem to stern, at her builders Messrs. Harland & Wolff, Belfast.

Originally constructed to carry first, second and third class passengers, the first and second class accommodations are being adapted to one class cabin requirements, which will thus give an unusually number of large public rooms available for cabin passengers. Designed for tropical service in the Mediterranean where she has been making regular voyages since just before the war, the Canopic's staterooms, companion ways and alleyways are said to be exceptionally large, providing a maximum of light and air circulation. In addition the Canopic has two long open promenade decks and will carry an orchestra of professional musicians, and as well publish a daily news paper while at sea.

Her third class accommodation, which while in the Mediterranean service, was all of the open type, in compliance with the Italian Government Immigration requirements, is being entirely remodelled, and will have a capacity of 1200 passengers, which will be accommodated in close two, three and four berth rooms. Third Class passengers are also privileged with an exceptionally fine promenade deck, which extends almost half the length of the ship.

I'm So Tired

Fatigue is the result of poisons in the blood. So when the kidneys fail to purify the blood one of the first indications is unusual and persistent tired feelings and pains in the back.

Neglected kidney troubles lead to years of suffering from rheumatism or develop into such fatal ailments as Bright's disease.

The kidney action is promptly corrected by use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills—the best known regulator of kidneys, liver and bowels.

Mrs. John Ireland, R.R. No. 2, King, Ont., writes:

"I was a great sufferer from severe headaches and bilious spells. I tried a number of remedies without obtaining any benefit until I was advised to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. These completely relieved me and made me feel like a new person. I am very grateful to Dr. Chase's medicines for what they have done for me, and you may use my letter for the benefit of others."

ter should be discussed in a sensible way, to the end that a solution might be reached in the interests of temperance and temperance people. Now that the subject of amendments to the liquor law has once been broached, we may expect other members on the Government side of the House to expound their views regarding it. Until however, the matter has been put in a concrete form, it is idle to discuss it. When the Government proposals are laid before the House they may prove to be of a nature worthy of support, or they may not. In the meanwhile, the public must continue to watch and wait.

SO MANY PEOPLE ARE NERVOUS

"Fruit-a-lives" the Greatest of all Nerve Remedies

This Fruit Medicine Restores Health

The increase in the number of persons suffering from Nervousness is world-wide; due, in a measure, to the reaction following the war. Sleeplessness, Headaches, Mental Depression, Rheumatism, Nervous Dyspepsia, Bad Heart Action, are the results of a disturbed condition of the Nervous System.

The nerves and the blood are so intimately, so vitally, connected that the condition of one is bound to affect the condition of the other. If the blood is laden with impurities, it is impossible to have strong, steady nerves.

The first essential in treating nervous troubles is to purify and enrich the blood. This, "FRUIT-A-LIVES" will do.

"FRUIT-A-LIVES" stimulates the bowels, kidneys and skin and purifies the blood. "Fruit-a-lives" improves appetite and digestion and insures food being properly digested, thus enabling the blood to carry wholesome nourishment to build up the body, particularly the nerves.

Men and women who take "Fruit-a-lives" for some form of nervousness—because they cannot eat or sleep or work or enjoy life—say that this fruit medicine is simply marvellous in its action.

50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa Ont.

TREES ATTRACT BIRDS

An interesting and unexpected feature of tree planting in the Prairie Provinces is that in regard to birds. Since considerable planting has been done around Regina, the Provincial Game Guardian reports that several species of birds that have never been seen in that part of the country before have taken up their abode in Wascana park and in the trees around the Parliament Buildings.

SEED TIME AND THE OAT SUPPLY

The unfortunate crop condition in 1921 in many parts of Canada, more especially for oats, led the Seed Purchasing Commission of the Seed Branch at Ottawa to hold in reserve considerably more than half a million bushels of No. 1 seed oats for this spring's seeding. This grain was stored in government interior terminal elevators at Calgary and Saskatoon. Early in March about 400,000 bushels of this grain had been disposed of, a considerable proportion of it going to Ontario, Quebec, and more eastern points. The Seed Purchasing Commission supplies seed oats in car loads only and at the net cost of the re-cleaned seed. It is understood that during recent months bankers and others have persisted in encouraging merchants to be cautious. Reports reaching the Seed Commissioner indicate that seed merchants have been so guided, by these precautions as to have in many cases an insufficient supply of seed grain to meet the full requirements. So much of the success of a crop depends on the quality of the seed sown as well as the promptness of getting it into the ground when the proper seeding time arrives, that farmers who have not already secured their full requirements of seed should see to it without further delay.

TREES ABOUT PRAIRIE SCHOOLS

A short time ago very few school districts in the Prairie Provinces planted trees about the school-house, but in the last three years the number has been steadily increasing. This year in Saskatchewan alone 150 school districts will plant trees. The seedling trees are obtained from the Dominion Forest Nursery Station at Indian Head, Sask.
