LONDON, Nov. 21.—Britain is preparing to withdraw from the Brussels Sugar Convention, unless the Powers concerned agree to let her have more sugar than at present. The increase in price in England has aroused considerable protest from British consumers. The Foreign Secretary announced to-day in the Commons that unless the Powers permitted Russia to export at least 500,000 tons of sugar westward during the current season the Government had decided to notify the Powers concerned of its intention not to adhere to the articles of the Convention beyond September, 1912, the earliest date Britain could withdraw.

Special to Evening Telegram.
LONDON, Nov. 21.—Mason, Liberal member for Coventry, has given notice to move a resolution in the Commons, Nov. 27th, protesting against what he calls the unwarrantable seizure of Tripoli by Italy, and expressing horror and detestation over the recent massacre of Arabs. The resolution will urge the Government, in accordance with true British principles, to appeal to the Hague in protest against what Mason says is an outrage on humanity.

Pouch Cove Concert.

The fancy fair and concert at Pouch Cove in aid of Rev. Father Curran's school fund was largely attended last night and proved a grand success financially and socially. A large party of friends of Father Curran went down from the city in four automobiles to help on the good work. The gentlemen who kindly lent their motor cars were Mr. Reid, Mr. Collishaw, Mr. Geo. M. Barr and Mr. P. Rioux, and the following were the visitors: Hon. M. E. Cashin, Messrs. J. L. Slattery, P. F. Moore, Dr. McLoughlin, F. Rioux, E. Collishaw, S. French, Frank Walsh, Councillor Mulhally, J. O'Grady, L. C. Murphy, F. Canning, J. Spearns and P. K. Devine. The Sale of Work at the School Hall. In the afternoon was followed by a concert at 8:30 in which Messrs. J. L. Slattery, P. F. Moore, Frank Walsh, P. K. Devine, Leo Murphy, J. O'Grady, J. Spearns and Miss Dooly assisted. There were songs, recitations, comic sketches and step-dancing, all making up a programme that was greatly enjoyed by the large audience present. At the conclusion of the programme there was a dance in the hall in which most of the city visitors tipped the light fantastic toe with great zest. Father Curran afterwards entertained the visitors at his hospitable board at the Presbytery where a most enjoyable hour was spent before leaving for town at midnight. Special votes of thanks were passed to the gentlemen who so kindly lent their motor cars for the occasion.

Crew Still Missing.

The message received by Inspector General Sullivan last evening from Sgt. Crane, of Channel, would indicate that there is a poor chance of the crew of the Heroine being saved. The schooner was on her way from Sydney to Burgeo with coal to J. Rose, her owner. The telegram referred to six—Pieces of foremast and mainmast washed ashore. The 'foots' of both sails show that they were reefed. A ship's boat with three ash oars lashed under the thwart and the plug hole open and her painter, to all appearances cut, has drifted ashore at Fox Roost. No sign of any bodies.

Schooner Broken Up.

"A Little Doing." Skeleton Found.

There is a little doing all the time in the finding of goods at the house of Mrs. Butler. Two policemen visited the residence yesterday and found more parcels one of which contained 11 pairs of rubbers and two pairs of galoshes. The police have nearly completed their work of classifying the goods and will have them on exhibition soon for the benefit of all who may be interested. Mrs. Butler is still held on remand.

A skeleton, supposed to be the remains of Susan Hayse, of Caplin Bay, was found on Cape Broyle Head last Monday by two men who were in there at "Devil's Stairs" getting some wood. The deceased was lost in the summer of 1889 while in the country looking for her cow.

CHRONIC BRONCHITIS

Cannot be cured with ordinary soothing syrups. The disease must be attacked at the root to eradicate the irritation of the lungs, heal the wounds and strengthen the respiratory organs. The composition of

MATHEU'S SYRUP

of Tar and Cod Liver Oil and other Medicinal Extracts marks it amongst all other remedies as the true specific for the diseases of the throat, the bronchial tubes and the lungs. Here are a few conclusive proofs:

CHURCH POINT, July 31, '08.
Blacking & Mercantile Co., Ltd., Amherst, N.S.
Dear Sirs,—Nearly one year ago I had my first order of "Mathieu's Syrup" from you. It was not cured in this country, and I gave samples to several families whom I knew would use it. After a few weeks I began to have a call for it, and trade has increased wonderfully since. I have not the least doubt but that it will soon be the best selling remedy for cough, colds, etc., on the market. In my store here sales are good and our people ask for it. Several stores in this county now keep it in stock and report increasing sales. I have bought from you since August 18th, 1907, 4 Gross and have only three dozen on hand at this date, and which I am holding for retail trade in my store. Yours truly,
LOUIS A. McLANSON.

English Ring Decision
Boxing Enthusiasts Will Decide
Action To-day.
London, Nov. 15.—The question to whether an appeal shall be entered from the Birmingham magistrate's decision that the Moran-Driscoll boxing match arranged for Dec. 16, is a fight, will be decided to-day. Lord Lonsdale and other authorities are conferring on the matter, and it is understood two courses of action are being considered.
The point to be determined whether a settlement of the problem will best be gained by proceeding with the contest and taking risks or by appeal to a higher tribunal. "Meanwhile," remarks the Standard, "it is an exaggeration to say that no judicial decision in the whole history of boxing has caused such a sensation as the Birmingham magistrate's conclusion that the contemplated conclusion is a prize fight."
The Secretary of the Amateur Boxing Association considers that an appeal will be unaffected by the Birmingham decision.

REASONED IT OUT
And Found a Change in Food Put Him Right.
A man does not count as wasted the time he spends in thinking over his business, but he seems loth to give the same sort of careful attention to himself and to his health.
And yet his business would be worth little without good health to care for it. A business man tells how he did himself good by carefully thinking over his physical condition, investigating to find out what was needed and then changing to the right food.
"For some years I have been bothered a great deal after meals. My food seemed to lay like lead in my stomach, producing heaviness and dullness and sometimes positive pain. Of course this rendered me more or less unfit for business, and I made up my mind that something would have to be done.
"Reflection led me to the conclusion that over-eating, illness, the stomach with indigestible food, was responsible for many of the ills that human flesh endures, and that I was punishing myself in that way—that was what was making me so dull, heavy and uncomfortable, and unfit for business after meals. I concluded to try Grape-Nuts food to see what it could do for me.
"I have been using it for some months now, and am glad to say that it has given me entire relief. I do not suffer any longer after meals, my food seems to assimilate easily and perfectly, and to do the work for which it was intended. I have regained my normal weight, and more than take more interest in it, and my mind is clearer and more alert."

In packages of Grape-Nuts there is a little book, "The Road to Wellville," and it's worth a careful reading.
