A Stale Show.

The Government papers are working overtime these days trying to convince the public that Sir Edward Morris is the hardest working and most successful French shabloner ever had, and that Sir Edward's old colleague, Sir Robert Bond, is, and always was, a great failure.

Time was when Sir Edward Morris lauded Sir Robert Bond to the skies and almost dared to go through fire and water to prove his allegiance to his chief.

There was a time, too, not a hundred years ago, when one of the present Government organs had no word of praise for the present Prime Minister.

The "quick change" artists are playing to the galleries, but the "gods" recognize the performance as an old one which has been repeated so often that it has become stale and uninteresting. The people have had enough of the People's Party—they are surfeited, the "house" is getting thinner every night and the actors will soon be playing to the orchestra.—Trinity Enterprise.

Row on Ship.

On Saturday night the Norwegian steamer Bried, which was loading fish at Harvey's wharf was the scene of a serious row. The seamen of the ship, who are Greeks and Norwegians, had been ashore all day celebrating. They came aboard well intoxicated and went to the forecastle where a hot argument arose between two Greeks and a Norwegian. Strong words in their own language elicited blows and soon knives were brandished and used to advantage. Two other Norwegians took sides in the combat and a nasty row followed. The police were telephoned for and three officers responded and arrested the principal disturbers—two Greeks and a Norwegian. On arrival at the police station one of the Greeks appeared to be badly cut and Dr. Mitchell was called to attend him. Yesterday morning the prisoners were released and put on board their ship which sailed for Alicante, Spain.

Worst Stomach Trouble Ended.

No Indigestion, Gas, Heartburn or Dyspepsia five minutes after taking "Pape's Diapepsin."

Every year regularly more than a million stomach sufferers in the United States, England and Canada take Pape's Diapepsin, and realize not only immediate, but lasting relief. This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, gassy, out-of-order stomach five minutes afterwards.

If your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Get from your Pharmacist a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no more sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, Nausea, Debilitating Headaches, Dizziness or Intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store.

These large 50-cent cases contain more than sufficient to thoroughly cure almost any case of Dyspepsia, Indigestion or any other stomach disorder.

Wedding Bells.

A very quiet wedding was celebrated at the residence of the bride's sister, 35 Cochran Street last Thursday evening at 8 p.m. when Mr. Robert Hamlyn of Hamilton Avenue, was united in matrimony to Miss A. C. Butt of Springdale Street. The ceremony being performed by the Rev. F. R. Matthews. The bride was beautifully gowned in grey silk poplin trimmed with oriental insertion which was very becoming. Miss Marguerite Parsons, niece of the bride, acting as bridesmaid and Mr. Ronald Clarke joining the honors of best man. The groom's present to the bride being a gold locket and chain, and a piece of gold to the bridesmaid and the best man was presented with a gold stick-pin. When refreshments had been partaken off the bridal pair drove to their residence on Hamilton Avenue. They were the recipients of many valuable presents.

C.C.C. Parade.

Under command of Lieut.-Col. Conroy, the C. C. C. Paraded to Last Mass at St. Patrick's Church yesterday morning. Leaving their armoury on Harvey Road at 8.30 the battalion proceeded via Long's Hill Theatre Hill, New Gower, Hamilton and Patrick's Street to the church. After Mass, the brigade reformed ranks and toured the city before returning to their hall; the corps band discoursed excellent music en route.

Why Who's Who.

BY H. L. RANN.

It must be a fearful thing to be dogged around by coupon bonds and 32 per cent. dividends, without being able to persuade them to release their hold. What a greater affliction could there be than a mass of multitudinous and multifarious and fastidious millionaires which pile up faster than eager church treasurers can receipt for them?

Yet this is precisely the fix in which Andrew Carnegie, Scotchman, finds himself. For years Andrew has been engaged in an unsuccessful effort to die poor. It is the passion of his life. He would rather die broke than do anything else he can think of offhand. For years, we say, Andrew has been throwing pipe organs, libraries and higher education at the heads of the common people without making a cent in his income. He hasn't even started a respectable dimple in it.

Every once in awhile Andrew tears off a few millions and hurls them with all his force at somebody who believes that our infant industries ought not to be throttled by the pauper labor of Europe. When he gets up the next morning and looks at his cash on hand, he finds that his income has gotten busy during the night and choked his safety deposit box with convertible assets. If he lets a day go by without starting a few gymnasiums or light fiction resorts, his money will pile up faster than the contents of a corn crib.

Andrew might as well give up. He is several laps behind now and sinking deeper and deeper legal tender and other financial debris. He will never know what poverty is unless he changes his system. There are thousands of bright, estimable young men who would be willing to help Andrew get rid of his small change, if he would invite them in and talk the matter over without any of the Scottish hauteur which creeps into some of his correspondence.

Aside from his money, which he can't help, Mr. Carnegie has no bad habits. He is as big and forceful and square as a Scotch-American is supposed to be, and you can't beat the combination.

Stafford's Prescription A.

If you are suffering from any stomach trouble; if you have a tendency to bloating; if you suffer distress after meals; if afflicted with gas on the stomach; if embarrassed by offensive breath—Stafford's Prescription "A" will give you relief. Magistrate Fitzgerald had a message on Saturday from Sub-Collector Stone informing him that Reuben Stone died at Pogo this morning. Reuben Stone was a brother of Mr. A. Stone, the Sub-Collector, and was the late pursuer of the S. S. Clyde. He was sick only a few days. His brother is taking his body to White Rock, Trinity Bay, where the family belongs. To the parents and relatives of the deceased, The Evening Telegram extends its sympathy.
