CAVALRY DETACHMENT MEET.

PARIS, Oct. 25. The cavalry of the Salonika army is in touch with Italian cavalry detachments from Aviona on the Adriatic Sea.

THE ROMANIANS.

BUCHAREST, Oct. 25. In the Uzul Valley the Romanians advanced westward, taking more than 100 prisoners. At Otuz enemy troops were driven beyond the frontier, losing 195 prisoners.

HELPING ROMANIA.

LONDON, Oct. 25. In reply to a question in the House of Commons to-day regarding the situation in Rumania, David Lloyd George, Secretary for War, said: "We and our Allies are working in concert. Everything that is possible is being done to help Rumania. Obviously it is undesirable to detail more exactly the measures being taken."

FRENCH HOLD DOUAMONT.

PARIS, Oct. 25. The clearing out of Fort Douaumont was completed during the night. The commander of the fort who was in a dugout was taken prisoner.

THE LOSS OF CONSTANZA.

PETROGRAD, Oct. 25. The loss of Constanza, the Rumanian chief seaport on the Black Sea, according to semi-official comment among members of the general staff, puts the Rumanians in a serious position, but it is not to be supposed it will entail any catastrophe. Col. Shumsky, military critic of the Bourse Gazette, says the success of the Teutonic Allies lacks that importance which it appears to have, and means only that the Rumanians have fallen back to a new defensive line from Tchernavoda to the Black Sea, slightly more Zam-Buk. They are asking for it in their letters home. They say that nothing takes the place of Zam-Buk for cuts, burns, blisters, sores, etc.

SOLDIERS ARE NEEDING

Pts. J. R. Smith of the "Princess Pats" writes: "Tell my friends, if they want to help me, to send some Zam-Buk. We find it very useful indeed, and we can't get too much of it."

Pts. Johnson, writing home, says: "Zam-Buk has offered to send me a rug. Ask her to send some Zam-Buk instead. It will be of more use here than all the rugs in creation."

Nothing ends pain and heals so quickly as Zam-Buk, and being germicidal, if applied to a wound as soon as sustained, prevents all danger of blood-poisoning. The soldier who carries a box of Zam-Buk in his pocket will be saved much needless suffering. Don't let your friends go without.

All druggists, or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, 596, have 3 for $1.25.

ZAM-BUK

ly northward of the railroad, and protected on the Danube by a strong bridgehead fortification. The assault of the invaders along the Constanta-Medjidie line is likened to the Belgian operations. The number of men crowded on this short front (Colonel Shumsky estimates there is one division to every three miles on a thirty mile stretch), is said to have been seldom exceeded on any front. Meanwhile the Austro-German campaign against the Rumanians continues to be accomplished by the delivery of a series of blows against the extreme left flank. On the southwestern Russian front, from Dorna Waters to the Rumanian frontier, the Austro-Germans are attempting to pierce the Russian line in order to isolate Rumania and prevent the further passage of Russian troops to assist Rumania. The Russians are said to have been able to check this offensive on all points on this sector.

CARDINAL MERCIER.

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 25. The Deutsche Tages Zeitung of Berlin, announces that Cardinal Mercier, Primate of Belgium, has issued a new pastoral letter in which he speaks of the butcheries in Armenia, and prays to the guardian angels of the Allies. The Cardinal says on account of the immediate danger of the Allies with God, the independence of Belgium is no longer doubtful. The paper also gives the following quotation from the letter: "We include in our prayer above all, unhappy Poland, which by German order can no longer be fed from America." The paper demands the suppression of such machinations.

RUN DETERMINATION.

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 25. Commenting on the recent speech of Viscount Grey the Lokal Anzeiger says, "No declaration could be more calculated to further intensify our willingness to gain the victory than the eternal repetition of this unrealistic intention to destroy Germany."

THE OLD, OLD STORY.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25. Lloyd's reports forwarded to the State Department from London record the destruction by German submarines of the Swedish steamers Svartik and Wilhelm, and the British steamer Ethel Duncan.

THE NEW BRITISH LOAN.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25. An official announcement was made to-day by J. P. Morgan & Co. that the new British loan by American bankers aggregating $200,000,000, which has been arranged, will bear interest at 5 1/2 per cent. Repayment will be made in two instalments, one three years and one five years. An interesting feature of the loan, according to the firm's announcement, is that because of the easy money market here it was arranged to advance the time contemplated by the British Government. Another is that it will cause for a time at least a cessation of the enormous inflow of gold to this country, which is said to have caused apprehension in banking circles of late because of the danger of inflation of fictitious values. Morgan satisfied for England recently and arranged the loan; he is still there.

GUEST OF HONOR.

OTTAWA, Oct. 25. Sir Robert Borden, Prime Minister of Canada, has accepted an invitation from the Canadian Club of New York, and will be the guest of honor at a dinner on Monday evening, Nov. 25.

THOSE POISON BOMBS.

BERLIN, Oct. 25. Referring to the official German announcement of Monday, that hostile aeroplanes which attacked Metz dropped bombs which emitted poisonous gases, killing some civilians and making others ill, the Tagblatt says: "Poison in bombs causes intense suffering and death in a few days." The newspaper continues, "General Joffre could not have sanctioned the assassination of non-belligerents," and expresses the hope that the French Government will apologize and punish the evildoers, adding "until this is done the incident will give a new turn to the war, the consequences of which cannot be foretold."

Everyday Etiquette.

"When I escort a lady home is it proper to take her to the gate or to the door asked Percy.

"You should escort the lady to the door and see that her key works all right, or that her ring is to be answered," his older brother answered.

Soldiers Entertained.

By Daughters of The Empire.

The sociable held by the Daughters of The Empire in the Presbyterian Hall last night under the patronage of Lady Davidson, as a form of welcome to our returned soldiers, was largely attended. His Excellency the Governor and Lady Davidson were present. About thirty veterans were in the audience and were greeted by Major Montgomerie, who acted as Chairman and complimented the heroes on their patriotism and work on the battlefield. A very enjoyable concert took place. Those taking part were: Mrs. G. W. B. Ayre, Mrs. Foster, Misses Mare, Shea, Ryan, Messrs. Hutton, Courtney and Post Messrs. Christian and Hutton acted as the accompanists. The farce entitled "Packing Up" was very amusing. The performers were, Mr. Cooper, Corp. Cooper and Corp. Hobbins. At the close of the concert refreshments were served by the ladies. Quite a handsome sum was realized which will be handed to one of the patriotic funds.

Keep Liver Active And Bowels Clean With "Cascarets"

Best when bilious, sick, headachy, constipated, or for bad breath or sour stomach.

Be cheerful! Clean up inside to-night and feel fine. Take Cascarets to loosen your liver and clean the bowels and stop headaches, a bad cold, biliousness, offensive breath, constipation, sallowiness, sour stomach and gases. To-night take Cascarets and enjoy the nicest, gentlest liver and bowel cleansing you ever experienced. Wake up feeling grand—Everybody's doing it. Cascarets best laxative for children also.

CANDIDATES.

My whole attention I am giving, to meet the rising cost of living. It keeps me hustling like the dickens to buy the liver, spuds and chickens to feed the wife and children twenty, and see that they have shoes aplenty. The transient hours are swiftly moving, and all of them I'd be improving; I'd keep on humping, even harder, that hams and pies may stock the larder. So I'm not cordial to that smarty, that office-hunting, windy party, who interrupts me when I'm telling to tell how politics is boiling, explaining how this jaded nation can never find its true salvation until to something he's elected, and his antagonist rejected. I'd never vote for any fellow who comes and shows his streak of yellow by boring me when I am earning the stuff to keep the furnace burning. When at the polls in black November, you bet I always will remember the candidates who did the spilling, and I will help them hit the ceiling.

Expert Opinion.

London Chronicle: It was a crowded railway compartment in the train carrying excursionists from the little town in Essex near which the flaming Zeppelin had been brought crashing to earth. Every body in it had found, or had acquired by purchase, a relic of the fallen monster. Generally it was a bit, sometimes quite a big bit, of the aluminium frame. There were metal workers in the compartment, and consequently expert criticism. "Not a very good job of riveting, is it, Bill?" said one, examining the joint; and Bill replied, "No, and they wouldn't pass brazing like that at our shop, b'leave me." Now what can you do with people who, instead of being scared by Hunish frightfulness, make depreciatory remarks about the workmanship of the instrument of destruction?

Parcels and Money.

ANOTHER COMPLAINT.

Editor Evening Telegram. Dear Sir, I wish to call the attention of whoever it may concern, with regard to parcels and money sent to our boys now fighting in France. I sent a boy about $20 worth in parcels, and I telegraphed him $2 from the Royal Bank of Canada somewhere about the latter part of July. He never got any of the parcels and he never received the money. I want to know who is to blame in this important matter. I had a letter from my boy last night asking for socks, telling me the weather is cold, and I don't see any good in sending him any. It's too bad and I think the matter should be looked into. Thanking you for space, I remain, yours respectfully, A SOLDIER'S MOTHER.

If the facts are as stated, there is good ground for complaint, but if the matter should be looked into it is clearly for the writer herself to do so as far as possible. If the institution is that the authorities are to blame, we relegate it, in one respect at least, on their behalf. If the money was telegraphed through the Royal Bank of Canada, we are fairly certain it reached its destination. If not, the sender should go to the Bank and have it traced. Whether or not similar observations would apply to the case of the parcels we cannot say, but in justice to all concerned it would be well if those who send remittances of any sort across would be most careful to see to the proper addressing, wrapping and other details connected with letters and parcels. Where so many hundreds go without mishap we cannot believe that the trouble with the few that go astray lies altogether on the other side.—Ed.]
