(Special to the ADVERTISER.) (Special to the ADVERTISER.)

TORONTO, March 5.—The offerings at the Western cattle yards were not heavy; 33 car loads of stuff came in today, which included 200 sheep and lambs and 800 hogs. Although there was a rather better feeling in butchers cattle, the prices were no higher. Buying for Montreal was slow, and there was not much local demand except for the best butchers' cattle. Prices were too high for the men from cattle. Prices were too high for the men from Montreal. One or two head of picked cattle Montreal. One or two head of picked cattle sold for 3½c per lb, but the ruling prices for best butchers' cattle were from 3c to 3½c per lb, according to quality. Fair stock sold for 3c per lb. Rough cows and bulls brought from 2½c to 2½c per lb. There were a few head of export cattle picked up today at prices ranging from 3½c to 4½c per lb. In milch cows and springers very few came in, and all sold at steady prices. Some of the poor ones were hard to sell, but the choice ones went well enough. Prices ruled from $20 to $40 per head. In sheep and lambs about 240 head offered and all sold. Lambs were about ½c per lb firmer.

-Wm. H. Payne, the local second hand doaler, was tried before Judge Edward Elliott this morning on a charge of having received $200 under false pretenses from a widow named Ellen Johnston. On Sept. 6 Payne went to Mrs. Johnston and secured $200, giving as security a chattel mortgage on his stock, which he claimed was worth from $400 to $500. The stock was seized in January and an appraiser placed its value at $66, but at auction it only realized $48. The defense was not entered upon, Judge Elliott holding that the crown had not established to his satisfaction that the stock was not worth what the defendant represented it to be when the mortgage was given in September. Payne was thereupon dis-charged. Mrs. Johnston has received $49 on the mortgage. The money she loaned had been received from insurance on her late husband. Growing Weaker.

The officers of the Seventh Battalion are having the old McCue Hotel, at the corner of Richmond and Kent streets, remodeled and fitted up for a club house. The non-coms and privates are interested in the undertaking, and in a month or six weeks the battalion will have a splendid resort. Every room in the building, which is three stories high, is being repainted, papered and plastered, and a new furnace has been with the hospitality accorded them by the Detroit club, whose members cannot be beaten socially. The score was: rocms for the officers and non-coms, while card, billiard and pool rooms will be furnished on the second and third floors. The officers are considering the advisability of having a roof garden.

SOUTH LONDON'S NEW PASTOR. The Call From Knox Church to Rev. J E. Stuart, of Toronto, Sustained-

Takes Effect April 7. Dr. Ferguson, J. Macpherson, T. Alexander and Rev. W. J. Clark represented Knox Church, South London, yesterday at the Toronto Presbytery, which met to consider the call from that church to Rev. J.

E. Stewart, of St. Mark's Church, Toronto.

Knox Church offered $1,400 yearly and four weeks' holidays. Mr. Clark, in speaking to the call, said it was signed by 133 members and 44 adherents of Knox Church, and had been made unanimous. The charge was an important one, and it was doubtless a matter of gratification to the Toronto Presbytery that, in the face of the fact that the call extended to a member of the Presbytery should now be extended to another mem-Dr. Ferguson very strongly urged the claims of Knox Church to the services of so able a pastor as Mr. Stuart. Mr. Macpherson told how the church was getting rapidly out of debt, the total indebtedness of the congregation being only $6,800. Mr. Stuart was not asked to come to a dead or decaying congregation, but one very much alive, and situated in a growing section of the city. Mr. Alexander gave figures showing the liberality in contributions of the Knox Church congregation, which averaged over $19 yearly per member. Members of Mr. Stuart's congregation urged his retention. Rev. Mr. Stuart said tinguished without assistance. Very little he had made many dear friends in the congregation of St. Mark's Church, and he felt that his duty there was a pleasing task, but that the church in South London opened up greater opportunities for work. He accepted the call, and hoped to fill the position worthily.

His translation was unanimously ratified, and a motion expressing regret at his departure was passed. It was decided to release Mr. Stuart from the pastorate of St. Mark's on Sunday,

THE VALLEYFIELD MURDER.

Shortis Locked Up in the Beauharnois Jail-A Woman's Love.

One daughter is in England; for and may be granted. Shortis will be very carefully watched, and Sheriff Leberge will not allow any one to see him unless by an order of the Attorney-General. A special guard will be asked for. The jail in which he is confined is a very old building, and during its exstence there have only been two murder trials in it, in each case the accused being acquitted. Shortis will be fed on porridge and bread and water princi-pally, though he will be allowed soup and meat for dinner on alternate days.

I was also very much troubled with a very tired feeling when arising in the morning. Hearing of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, I thought I would try a box, and I must say 'tis indeed a wonderful medicine in pill form, for after taking one pill my head felt better, and before I had taken half a box was entirely cured, and had no eturn of stomach or head trouble." Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are put up in yellow wrappers, which bear the photograph and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase. None others are genuine.
