METZ, Sept. 12.—In replying to the address of the burgomaster of Strasbug on the Broglie Platz yesterday, the Emperor, after expressing his regret for the shortness of his sojourn in the beautiful city, said: "When as a boy I sang 'O Strasburg, du Wunderschoene Stadt, I prayed God that Strasburg, for which I always felt an especial sympathy, might again become Gorman. Since then that wish has been fulfilled. I treasure Strasburg as one of the best German cities. I am convinced that the people of Strasburg are happy in the reunion. This conviction I have felt so much the more on this occasion, as I arrived here unexpectedly. My engagements prevent a long stay among you now, the Broglie Platz yesterday, the Emperor, ments prevent a long stay among you now, but I hope in the future to find an opportunity for a longer stay without taking you by surprise. I feel at home among you; that is why I acquired a hunting estate in your neighborhood, which will soon bring me here again."

Irritated France. PARIS, Sept. 12.—The irritation of France against England seems to increase day by day. First the Government was urged to assert itself against England's interference in the Siamese question; then it was claimed that, at the opening of the chambers, the Government must make the power of France felt by raising the Egyptian ghost again, and now the French press has found fresh cause to attack Engpress has found fresh cause to attack England and is angrily harping against the obstacles which, it is claimed, the Niger Company has placed in the way of French explorers. There are people who are unkind enough to say these attacks upon the part of the French press, directed against England, serve, intentionally or unintentionally, to turn the attention of the people from the really irritating reviews, sham battles and visits to frontier fortresses indulged in by the German Emperor with the Crown Prince of Italy at his side. That is really where the shoe pinches, and

The Britannia's Victory.

London, Sept. 12.—The Times, noting the fact that in accordance with the English rules the Britannia is entitled to time sliewance from the Navahoe, says this makes her victories the more decisive. British yachtemen, the paper adds, have long held that in no weather is the Navahoe the olipper that American builders are wont to turn out when they try their best, and that in a strong wind she is absolutely desicient in stability. The Times while accepting Mr. Carroll's explanation at to the accident in the race at Cowes for the town cup, insists that the Navahoe keeled in a dangerous way and answered ber helm with difficulty.

The House of Commons.

London, Sept. 12.—In the House of Commons yesterday, in a discussion on the army estimates, J. H. Dalziel, M.P. for Kirkealdy, moved a reduction in the estimates as the status of the decision of the victory in his fight turn in the passages to show them the way to the scene of their deliberations. As for identifying them, that was quite beyond the powers of the servants of the House, appearently any elderly farmer wearing a cover coat with side pockets could pass freely in and take his seat without a question. This bucolic effect colored the whole all wore black coats, but their sunburnt, beavy faces, huge red hands and awkward box ought instead to be in tweeds and gaters. Here in London we think of peers mostly as carefully-dressed, even dapper, habitues of Piocadilly and the Row. But in this great formal muster of the peering with the world was fairly snowed under by service masses of countrified equires. This defect of hayseed was by no means confined to appearances. No turb thumping demanded wildly at bald old elementary jokes which even the drivers of four wheelers wented of a decade ago. They started at such speakers as strove to distance the first of the scene of the town cup, insist that the Navahoe has been a rollicemen tad to be stationed at every urn in the passages to show them the way of the scene of their deliberations. Ten Thousand People Honor Him at Leamington

Despite Morning Rain-A Monster Pro-Ceasion-"The Maids of Canada"-Speeches by the Leader, Hon. Mr. Hardy and Others-

Leamington, Sept. 12.—The demonstration at Sea Cliff Park, Leamington, held in honor of Hon. Wilfrid Laurier, was perhaps the most successful of the series of meetings now being held. The threatening weather and the downpour of rain which took place up to 9 o'clock in the morning no doubt prevented thousands from being present who would have been there. Notwithstanding this there must have been between 8,000 and 10,000 present.

Mr. Laurier arrived by special train at 11 a.m., and was received by an immense crowd. An address of welcome was presented to him by the Leamington Young Liberal Club, by whom the demonstration was prepared. The distinguished parties then took carriages, and, headed by the Leamington band and mounted yeomanry, the party proceeded, passing between lines of liberale with motter and hanners to a

MONTREAL, Sept. 12 .- The Presbytery Moutreal met to day in the David Morrke Hall to consider the alleged Campbel heresy case. The charge of libel, agreed upon at the last meeting of the Presbytery,

The professor read his reply to the charges, in the course of which he said "With no feeling of trepidation, far less of shame, I appear before this court to reply shame, I appear before this court to reply to the charge laid against me. But so far as my libeled lecture is concerned, I feel a good conscience towards God and man. I believe the Bible, even the Old Testament, to be on the whole a very truthful book, and its errors in history, chronology and other matters to be very few and of no great importance, yet the strors are there. More than 25 years ago I gave special attention to the genealogy of the First Book of Chronicles. A comparison of these with those in the 36th chapter of Genesis, and with the scheme of ancient history reveals wonderful discrep-chapter of Genesis, and with the scheme of ancient history reveals wonderful discrepancies showing that the chronicler ignorantly classified under the families of Israel great Gentile names having no consction with them."

Several clergymen gave their views on the subject at issue, but no definite decision was reached at the time of adjournment.

Later — The Montreal Presbytery tonight found Prof. Campbell guilty on the first count of the libel for heresy by a vote of 21 to 13.

Speaking of the Manitoba school question, Sir John Thompson said the Government had submitted the question whether it had the right to give remedial legislation to the courts, and until a decision was rendered it would be impossible to say what the Government's course would be. Addresses were also made py Sir A. Caro, Messrs. Oulmet, Angers and Curran, and the meeting broke up at a late hour.

Albert Edward Wilson on Trial for Murder.

A Plea of Insanity-His Sister in the London Asylum,

SARNIA, Sept. 12.—The trial of Albert Edward Wilson, who was brought here some few weeks ago from Saginaw, charged with the murder, in 1889, of Miss Mary Marshall, of Warwick, this county, was commenced here this morning at the assizen, presided over by Justice Falconbridge. Almost every person, especommenced here this morning at the assizes, presided over by Justice Falconbridge. Almost every person, especially in this vicinity, is familiar with the story of the memorable Sunday evening when Wilson shot the young lady coming from church. Mr. Loutt, Q.C., is conducting the business for the crown, and Mr. B. B. Osler, Toronto, and J. F. Lister, Sarnia, are defending the prisoner.

The plea for acquittal on the grounds of insanity was entered. The facts of the case are not disputed by the defense. A number of witnesses were examined, including medical experts, who gave testimony as to the different features, etc., of such cases. It appears, however, from evidence given, that Wilson's family are predisposed in this respect, and some of the members, especially a sister who is now in London Asylum, have been under treatment. The evidence will be all in to-morrow, when the addresses will be delivered and the jury charged. There was a very large crowd at court. Wilson seems very much depressed and feels his position keenly.
