late in the day began to sag. The early buying, which put the May price up to 75% c, was largely by interests which sold freely later. Some little wheat was wanted around 75c, but at best the buying was of an indifferent character. Uning was of an indi to 22c for pound rolls and 19c to 20c for crocks. Eggs were in large supply and prices were a shade easier, at 14c to 16c per dozen, mostly at 15c.

Poultry—There was considerable offered and the demand was brisk; turkeys sold higher, at 15c to 17c per pound, and were scarce; chickens, dressed, sold at 75c to $1 per pair; a pair of live turkeys, which weighed 37 pounds each, were held at $10. at $10.

Vegetables and Roots—There were quite a few loads of potatoes offered and sales fair, at $1 20 to $1 25 per bag; onlons were slow, at 60c to 65c; turnips, 25c to 30c; lettuce and radishes were in good demand

NEW YORK. New York, March 14.—Flour—Receipts, 25,578 bbls; sales, 2,300 pkgs; flour was lower to sell and without much demand lettuce and radishes were in good demand at 30c to 40c per dozen; celery, which is being shipped here from California, is sold at $1 to $150 per dozen bunches.

Apples were in abundance and sales were slow, as the market was oversupplied; prices were unchanged from those quoted.

All to $150 per dozen bunches.

Apples were in abundance and sales were slow, as the market was oversupplied; prices were unchanged from to sell and without much demand from any quarter. Buckwheat flour—Bording for London, who some time. J. is in the city.

Wheat—Receipts, 14,250 bu; sales, 1,210,000 bu; wheat was advanced slightly this morning on fears of a cold wave scare, local covering and predictions for small world's shipments on Monday. May 791/20. supplied; prices were unchanged from those quoted.

Dressed Hogs—There were about 40 to 73½c; July, 76%c to 77c; Sept., 75½c to 75½c. Rye—Steady. Corn—Receipts, $5,000 good; prices went lower than those paid on Thursday; $8 50 was the ruling figure; some heavy hogs sold at $8 35 per 100 weather west and easier cables; May, pounds, and a few choice lean hogs at $75. $8.75.

Live Hogs—The price for Monday will be $6 per 100 pounds. Small pigs were more numerous, and owing to the advance in selects there was a good demand at higher prices, which ruled from $6 to $10 per pair, according to age and size. Butchers' Meats—The supply was light and sales slow, owing to the unsettled condition of the trade; there was no change in prices.

MISS GORDON'S SUCCESS. Toronto Globe: Miss Isabel Gordon, of London, Ont., a young violinist of much promise, is receiving great praise for her excellent work on the concert platform. Miss Gordon, who has taken a course of instruction in London, England, appeared at a sacred concert in St. James' Methodist Church, Montreal, March 14.—Cattle—Receipts, the other evening. Of her playing the Gazette says: "She is indeed an artist, possessing a wonderful technique combined with true artistic spirit and feeling. Her interpretation of Sir Alexander Mackenzie's "Benediction" was a revelation, and more than earned the applause which it received.'

> INTERESTING PRESENTATION. Mr. and Mrs. Donald McCrimmon, cf Oxford street, North London, entertained a number of their friends at their new home on the evening of Friday. the 13th inst. The occasion was taken advantage of by the friends from South London to spring a surprise on their host and hostess by the presentation of a set of sterling silver spoons, accompanied by an address, most handsomely engrossed, and signed by the contributors to the presentation. Mr. McCrimmon suitably replied. Follow ing the presentation appropriate speeches were delivered. Instrumental music, songs and recitations enlivened the proceedings, and the evening's entertainment proved a most pleasant and enjoyable one.
