BROKE A DOG'S LEG

John Begg Found Guilty on Charge of Cruelty.

John Begg was charged at police court this morning with cruelty to animals, the complainant being Frank Sage. The evidence showed that a little terrier belonging to Mr. Sage had run onto the concrete sidewalk being driven by the defendant's dog, and was one of the workmen employed on the sidewalk, seized the dog, lifted it shoulder high, and flung it violently down on the sidewalk, breaking its leg.
The dog had to be destroyed.

Begg was found guilty and was bailed to appear on Tuesday next for sentence.

DETECTIVES KILLED!

On the N. J. Central—Had Been Watching for Car Thieves.

New York, July 4.—Three detectives employed by the Central Railroad of New Jersey were killed by a train between Clarendon and Jersey City today. The bodies were found alongside the rails by a track-walker. The men were Robert Smith, 25 years old; John Cagrove, 25 years old; and Wm. J.
Edmond, 27 years old.

Freight cars of the company have been robbed repeatedly of late while on the siding between Jersey City and Clarendon, and the three detectives had been keeping a sharp lookout for the thieves. It is supposed that the men were struck by the train about 3 o'clock in the morning.

James McNab Missing.

Arthur, Ont., July 4.—Jas. McNab, aged 24, wandered from his home at Kendworth, near Mount Forest, on Thursday, June 26, and has not been heard of since. Most diligent search has been made through the woods in every direction, but no trace can be found of him. His mind has been a little affected, and his friends are anxious as to his whereabouts.

Bees Starving to Death.

New York, July 4.—Frost, rain, and prolonged cold have been disastrous to the industry of the honey bees at Warsaw, N. Y. Inclement rain has washed the flowers clean of nectar and pollen, and millions of bees have starved to death. The bees have killed all the drones and destroyed the queen cells, thereby preventing an increase in number.

Suit for $1,500,000.

New York, July 4.—W. W. Wickham Smith, the special attorney-general appointed to investigate the alleged silk importation frauds at this port, has issued a summons against A. S.
Rosenthal and Samuel Fried, of Rosenthal & Fried, to answer an action commenced against them by the government to recover a sum of $1,500,000.
This sum, the government claims, is due because of alleged undervaluation of imports, together with forfeitures allowed by law.

Deal Worth $25,000,000.

Youngstown, Ohio, July 4.—Messrs.
Park & Hamilton, of this city, have received a cablegram from their representatives in Havana announcing that franchises have been granted them authorizing them to construct and operate electric street railway lines throughout the city of Havana.
The concessions are said to be worth fully $25,000,000, and include all the franchises in the city of Havana.

The Canada Cycle Company.

Toronto, July 4.—Dissatisfied shareholders have again taken action against the directors of the Canada Cycle Company. The object is to establish the assertion that the purchase of the National Cycle Company and its absorption into the trust was illegal, and that the directors of the Canada Cycle Company are personally responsible for the loss that followed the acquisition of the National. G. W.
Bedwell, on behalf of himself and all other stockholders, sues J. W. Fla-vie, Hon. G. A. Cox, J. A. Cox, J. W.
Soper, Mrs. Sussie Massey, Chester Master and J. H. Housser for the cancellation of agreement under which the National was taken over for the return to the Canada Cycle Company's treasury of $289,000, the purchase price of $150,000 paid out for National Cycle Company debts and $75,000 in interest on Cycle preferred stock paid when it had not been earned.

Japan has taken sides with the United States and Great Britain on the Chinese indemnity imbroglio, and it is thought the influence of these three powers will have the effect of bringing about a more liberal construction of the indemnity for China.

THE KING WRITES A LETTER TO JEANNE LANGTRY MALCOLM

All the Signs of Improvement in His Majesty's Condition Continue—Fewer Bulletins Hereafter.

Coronation Date Now Comes Up for Discussion.

THE PARADE WILL BE SIMPLE

Business People Will Be Glad When It Is Over and the Undue Excitement Ceases.

London, July 4.—The King's medical advisers, while satisfied with the progress of the patient, are emphatic in warning him against overtaxing his strength in the near future. It is not known that they took a serious view of his condition before the Aldershot review, and advised surgical treatment immediately after the first breakdown in health. The King was determined to see the thing through, and court officials, who denied the alarming rumors about his health, took their cues from him and not from his medical advisers.

TODAY'S BULLETIN.

The bulletin regarding the King's condition, posted at Buckingham Palace at 10 o'clock this morning, says:
"The King had a good night, and, indeed, slept better than at any time since the operation. The wound now gives less trouble, and his majesty can move in bed with greater ease.
His majesty's appetite has improved.
(Signed) Treves, Lakin, Barlow."

A LETTER FROM THE KING.

The London correspondent of the Liverpool Post says the first letter the King has written since his illness was to Jeanne Langtry Malcolm on the occasion of her marriage, wishing her happiness.

DATE OF THE CORONATION.

There are persistent rumors that the coronation will be hurried on, and many dates are mentioned, ranging from the middle of August to the middle of October. Members of parliament, officials of the court and civil service and business men regard with extreme disfavor the prolongation of excitement and a premature attempt to carry out the original programme. There will be general relief when the town is habits of life and business. The decision respecting the date of the ceremony in the abbey rests with the King, and will not be reached until a close approach is made to normal conditions. Probabilities point to a single procession to the abbey greatly simplified, and a coronation ceremony in abbreviated form.

While the coronation functions will be concluded this week, when the picturesque durbur is held at the India office and the King's diners for the half-million working people are catered, there is an artificial demand from the disappointed public for additional town shows. The half-penny press eagerly advocates a parade of the colonial and Indian troops over a long route, where they can be seen by the masses of East and South London, and other suggestions are offered for the entertainment of the public.

Postmaster Wigle Notified That His Suspension Is Withdrawn.

[Special to Advertiser.] Ottawa, Ont., July 4.—The militia department got a cable from Cape Town today, asking to withhold the pay for the 3rd, 4th, 5th and 6th Mounted Regiments. This means that they are arranging to return home.

RESTORED.

Postmaster Wigle, of Windsor, was suspended some time ago on account of certain irregularities, which resulted in the delay of mails in his office.
Today Mr. Wigle was notified that the suspension was withdrawn, and he is now restored to his post.

English Capitalists Lose.

New York, July 4.—The St. Lawrence power plant at Massena, N. Y., has been sold at Massena under foreclosure proceedings begun by the first mortgage bondholders. The plant was bid in by Mark T. Cox, of New York, representing the reorganization committee of the first and second morgage bondholders, for $300,000. More than $10,000,000 have been expended in the Massena power scheme. English capitalists were heavily interested. The failure of the project was principally due, it is believed, to a lack of field in which to dispose of the company's product.

of a zollverein, a federation or even a permanent council.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier was invited to Baroness Burdett-Coutts' garden party today.

After the close of the colonial premiers' conference, in London, says the Paris correspondent of the Times, a banquet will be given in Paris by French politicians to Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

The leading theaters are arranging special performances in honor of the premiers, George Alexander, the actor-manager, is entertaining them on Saturday with "Paolo Francesca." Sir Frederick Borden is suffering from fatigue.

Lieut. Turner, who was thrown from his horse at the Queen's review, had a narrow escape, but is now recovering.

New York has determined to appoint commercial agents in Britain and various parts of Europe and also in South Africa.

Consequence of the King Seems To Be Well Assured.

London, July 3.—Everything points to a satisfactory, if not prolonged, convalescence of the King. It is understood that the bulletins regarding his condition will soon be reduced to one a day. Only small crowds now haunt the bulletin boards at Buckingham Palace, which is an indication that public confidence has been restored. Only one physician now remains at the palace throughout the night, and all of His Majesty's doctors are able to attend to their private practices.
Sir Frederick Treves absented himself from the palace today to attend the wedding of his only daughter to Maj.
Delme Radcliffe.

The following bulletin was posted at Buckingham Palace at 7 p.m.: "His Majesty had a comfortable day. His general condition is still further improved, and the wound now causes him comparatively little pain." (Signed) Treves, Lakin, Barlow."

FILIAN CURIOSITY.

Crowds of the soldiers now in London make daily pilgrimages to Buckingham Palace to gaze at the window of His Majesty's apartment, while natives gather to stare at the strange uniform and stranger faces of the cavalry soldiers from distant quarters of the empire. A striking scene was witnessed today. A big brake loaded with Indian soldiers drew up in front of the palace. The men were bare legged and bare headed, their frizzy hair was long and dyed. With their white cotton skirts and quaint turbans, they presented a strange spectacle, even in cosmopolitan London. In front of the palace and to the amazement of the assembled crowd the Filians solemnly intoned a hymn of intercession for the King's recovery. The
