RUSSIANS SORRY THAT WAR IS OVER

Britain Now Free to Oppose the Czar's Schemes.

THE WAR TAXES WILL STAND

King Menelik Sends a Small Zoo as a Gift to King Edward—Assent of Pele.

St. Petersburg, June 5.—The newspapers here comment rather freely upon the conclusion of peace in South Africa, and express undisguised regret that the war there is over. The press voices the feeling that the release of Great Britain from her entanglements in South Africa will leave that country a free hand to oppose Russia, wherever the policies of the two nations conflict.

WAR TAXES STAND.

London, June 5.—The promised statement of Sir Michael Hicks-Beach consisted of a lengthy review of the financial situation. The chancellor of the exchequer said that the whole of the £200,000,000 provided in the budget for prosecution of the war would be needed to effect the demobilization and transportation of the British troops in South Africa, to move the Boer prisoners from the various concentration camps and to furnish garrisons for South Africa. Sir Michael Vernon Harcourt (Liberal) asked Sir Michael Hicks-Beach the number of these garrisons. The chancellor of the exchequer said it would be premature to answer this question now, but that he had grounds for hoping that in the course of a few months large garrisons in South Africa would prove unnecessary. The chancellor said he was glad to say he could dispense with the additional £75,000,000 which he had asked for when the new loan was authorized by the house. He said he proposed to continue the new taxes for the present, but he asked the house to renew the sinking fund as the best step towards re-establishing the credit of the country. In conclusion the chancellor of the exchequer said one of the first matters to be considered was to determine how the revenues derived from the mineral wealth of the Transvaal could be allocated so as to provide interest on a portion of the war debt. MENELIK'S GIFTS TO EDWARD. Ras Jibuti, East Africa, June 5.—Col. Harrington, who is accompanying the envoy of King Menelik, Ras Makonnen, the famous Abyssinian general, to the coronation of King Edward, has arrived ahead of the envoy's caravan. Col. Harrington brought with him twelve lions and two zebras. King Menelik's gift to King Edward. NOT A CABINET-MAKER. Paris, June 5.—M.
