HAY SOLD FOR

Offerings Were Light Today and process, common to special, western factory, 20c to 211/2c. Prices Took a Jump.

OATS WERE VERY STRONG

Supply of Fodder Appears Inadequate -A Rather Dull Day on the Local Market.

The market this morning was anusually slack, some dozen loads of $8, according to quality. hay and two or three loads of oats were the only commodities offered for sale. The prices, however, showed a decided tendency to advance, and the demand in all lines was very strong.

Toronto, Aug. 13.—Grain values are moderately unchanged, and there is a disposition, in this market to expect a Three loads of hay brought the high figure of $12, while none dropped below $11, and the majority of the loads sold at $11 50, which was considered a very good price yesterday.

Oats, too, were very strong, all that $1 15. were offered finding a ready sale at $1 60 which is 3 cents in advance of the top price of yesterday.

The demand for both hay and oats ronto; No. 2 white, 46c to 48c; No. 3 white, severy persistent, and the supply ofNo. 1 extra feed, 46c; No. 3, 45½c, at is very persistent, and the supply offered is quite inadequate to meet the lake ports, and 47c to 48c on track a demand, and consequently the prices Toronto.

Barley-Old stocks exhausted; new barpaid for the next few days at least is likely to be high.

EAST LONDON

IS TAKING LIFE EASILY Living on the Fat of the Land in

PLAUSIBLE STRANGER

East London and Pays Nothing.

A plausible stranger has been living an economic life at the expense of a number of East London boarding-house keepers lately. He is a tall, robust-looking man of perhaps 35 or 40 years of age, and wears a grey suit. His appearance is such as establishes a feeling of confidence that his acts fail to justify. The man is evidently a believer in the saying that it is cheaper to move than to pay rent. His plan is to arrange for board at some house, where he remains on a strictly credit basis for three or four days, when it is his custom to "fold his tent like the Arabs, and as silently steal away, omitting, however, to leave a remittance Quite a number of people have been victimized in this way, and people in the neighborhood are feeling strongly in the matter, and to quote the words of a onetime popular song,"a terrible spree there's and Springbank water. The presents bound to be if he comes back again." A BALL GAME.
