Win Certificates, Securing Honor Marks
Miss J. McKinnon, Glencoe, Ont., and Miss E. Glavin, Maguire, Ont., have been notified by the registrar of the Business Educators' Association that they have passed with honors the shorthand and typewriting examinations prepared by that association. These young ladies were prepared for these tests by the Forest Street Business and Shorthand College. This school is the only institution in London preparing candidates for these examinations. The same day that the test ended Miss Glavin was placed by Principal Westwell as stenographer with Elvaille Silverwood Company. Young people who have in mind a business education should secure information regarding the Westwell School. Its work and standing are such that it is recognized as a high-grade business school.

HORSE THIEF WAS TAKEN AT INGERSOLL
Skipped With Outfit Valued at $250 From Aylmer Stable.
[Special to The Advertiser.]
Aylmer, Dec. 12.—A youth, who gives his name as Pick, and his home as Port Rowan, is under arrest here on a charge of having stolen a horse and buggy valued at $250 from Messrs. Pierce & Sons, local liverymen. Pick drove into town yesterday, and left an outfit valued at $100 at the stable, saying he wished to go on to St. Thomas, and would return. While at the stable he traded a rifle with one of the hostlers.
Instead of going to Aylmer, Pick drove to Ingersoll, and was trying to sell the horse and outfit to a liveryman there, when the man noticed the name of the Aylmer stable on the harness. He at once became suspicious and asked Pick to wait a minute. In the meantime he notified the police, and Pick was arrested as he sat in the buggy in the barn. He is being brought to Aylmer, and will come up for a hearing before Magistrate Bradley today.
