PROSPECTS BRIGHT FOR CITY HOCKEY LEAGUE THIS WINTER

FAST CITY HOCKEY LEAGUE FOR LONDON THIS WINTER

Lots of Material and Splendid Prospects For Such an Organization-Meeting Will Be Called Shortly to Discuss Matter -Meds Will Enter a Team.

Prospects for a city hockey league this coming winter are exceedingly bright, and it is likely that a meeting will be called shortly to discuss the advisability of forming one. There is plenty of material in the city at present to form four strong in teams, and a prominent businessman has signified his intention of putting up a teams, and a prominent businessman has signified his intention of putting up a team, and a prominent businessman has signified his intention of putting up a team, and are anxious for a city league cup if a league is formed. The Western University are anxious for a city league part as they have some good material at the school and are anxious to enter a team.

Last winter it was proved a put on. Last winter it was proved a couple of teams could be picked from any couple of teams could be picked from any couple of the local leagues that would beat either of the C. H. A. sevens in the city. #### JIM McALEER'S RECORD SHOWS THERE'S A FORTUNE IN BASEBALL FOR PLAYER WITH BUSINESS ABILITY.

It is pertinent at this time to give a contemplation to the man in James R. McAleer, of Youngstown, O., has $200,000 invested in the Boston club. Of this, $130,000 represents his savings. The remaining $70,000 was borrowed -without interest-from Charles Comiskey, of Chicago, one, of the wealthiest men in the American League.

McAleer tells close friends that for the past eight years his income as manager and scout has been $20,000 a season. He saved his money, and when opportunity presented itself he purchased the Boston

With $130,000 in the bank, it was easy to secure the $70,000 balance from Comiskey, whose players have made him rich and who always regarded Jim as the game's greatest outfielder. Now that the Red Sox have won the world's series, McAleer will not only get back all of his investment, including the $70,000 he borrowed from Commy, but will have something left to buy a few new players.
