

Mrs. John W. Graham of Komoka visitor in town this week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Weir are

Mrs. Malcolm H. Rowland left reat present in Vancouver.

Miss D. Mills is spending two weeks in Appin, the guest of her father, Mr. William D. Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Chapman and family have returned from their summer home at Trent River.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Keene and family have returned to London from their summer home at Port Stanley.

Mr. George Guest of Toronto is a. quest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Haskett. Maitland street.

Miss Jennie Weir arrived home on after a delightful holiday visit of six or seven weeks at Clifton Springs. Major T. J. and Mrs. Murphy and Mr. and Mrs. James E. Kerrigan, and their son Charles, have arrived by the bride's brother, Mr. Lester home after spending two months in Davis.

Miss Beaulah Bailey, Miss Anna Clark and Miss Jessie Clark have returned home after attending the

Mrs. J. H. Thomas and daughter, in the city this week.

Major E. K. Eaton and Mrs. Eaton and their niece, Miss Georgena Layton, are leaving Saturday for Bermuda. They will sail from Halifax.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Scandrett and right, when Miss Nellie Fern Curtis of Mrs. Garvey, who spent the summer Sarnla became the bride of Mr. Beverly months at their cottage at Hillcrest,

Mr. J. W. Mills of Montreal, grin. who has been on an extended visit to Banff and Vancouver, will be the week-end guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Mills.

returned home after spending the left for London and points east fol summer with her daughter, Mrs G. ing the ceremony. S. Hensley, at her home at Metis.

Bee Griffith, 104 Dundas street, has Bee Griffith, 104 Dundas street, has returned from a very pleasant vacation with her friend, Mrs. Crellin of Ingerwith her friend, Mrs. Crellin of Ingerwas the scene of a very happy event well liked.

lington street, accompanied by Mrs. H. J. Bennett and Mr. and Mrs. A. D. H. J. Bennett and Mr. and Mrs. A. D.
Heffernan, motored to Toronto on Wednesday. They will spend the balhome of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Flitton, home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Flitton, which inventors have been able to Thursday afternoon in honor of Miss Flitton, brother of the bride, attended versity of Illinois.

secretary, is holding an after-the-holidays rally on Friday evening, in the form of a corn roast at Happy Valley, Colborne street north.

Tykociner.

Colborne street north.

Tykociner.

Professor Tykociner's invention re-day for Cleveland to attend the inter- MUTT AND JEFF national dancing teachers' convention, which will be held in that city next week. They will also visit Buffalo and New York before returning

Mrs. C. H. Hill was a tea hostess Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. E. K. Eaton, at the tea hour Mrs. H. Landon poured out tea. Friday afternoon, Mrs. Cameron Wilson is entertainig at a bridge, at her home in Dundas street, also in Mrs Eaton's

Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Howden have reached Tadousac, Que., on their eacht "Carolo." They are on their eturn trip, following a cruise down the lower St. Lawrence, their guests eing Mr. and Mrs. C. Coristine of Montreal, Mrs. Leach of Kingston, ! and Mr. Frank Clark of Quebec.

Miss Mary Tuffield and Miss Ida Drake were joint hostesses of a miscellaneous shower, given in honor of Miss Florence McRae, a bride-elect of this week. The shower was given Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Tuffield. The many attractive gifts were brought into the living-room on a gayly-decorated wagon, drawn spending a few weeks in Windsor by little Miss Rosetta Thomas, niece of Miss Tuffield. The rooms throughout were made bright with asters and gladioli. Games and music were encently on a trip to the coast, and is joyed during the evening, and a dainty supper served.

A pretty wedding took place Wedesday afternoon at the home of the bride's cousin, Mrs. Wilfred Hulbert, Hamilton road, when Leah, only daughter of Mr. A. E. Davis, was married to Charles S. Way, youngest son of Mrs. S. T. Way. The house was effectively decorated with fall flowers, the decorations in the diningoom carrying out a color scheme of yellow and white.

The bride, gowned in white satin, and wearing a bridal veil, caught family have arrived in town from with orange blossoms, was given in marriage by her father. As the bride their summer home at Sauble Falls. entered the living-room, the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin was played

Rev. G. T. Watts performed the eremony. Following the ceremony, a wedding supper was served, and the young couple left later on a honeymoon which will be spent in Detroit, Chicago and Minneapolis. For traveling the bride wore a tan crepe knit Miss Dorothy, motored over from In- dress, a tan cloth coat and a smart gersoil and have been visiting friends feathered hat to match. Upon their return they will reside in London.

TIFFIN-CURTIS.

SARNIA, Sept. 6.—A very pretty wedding took place at noon on Wednes-day at the beautiful home of A. Curtis at Pine Grove, two miles from Court-right, when Miss Nellie Fern Curtis of Fiffin of Windsor. The bride was charming in a dress of pearl gray bead-Port Stanley, have returned to the city.

Misses Eleanor and Marion Maning have returned home after spending their holidays at the summer home of their cousin near Parry Sound.

Mr. J. W. Mills of Montreal, spin." Miss Anna Boyington of the city.

Charming in a dress of pearl gray beaded sale and described and carried a bouquet of Killarney flore is crepe-back satin, sand carried a bouquet of Killarney flore is crepe-back satin, sand carried a bouquet of Killarney decorated throughout in a color scheme of pink, green and white. Mrs. Rutangent is crepe-back satin, which is soft and beautiful, as well as durable. Pussy willow silk, sheer quickly.

The newest material for fine froze again.' He says, 'But no one came back; so I went away.' "Where did you go?" Barney cried quickly.

"They must be. We both of us froze again.' He says, 'But no one came back; so I went away.' "Where did you go?" Barney cried quickly.

"The ouse stant no one form be savely."

"Where did you go?" Barney cried quickly.

"Where did you go?" Barney cried quickly.

"The ouse stant no one tame back; so I went away.' "Where did you go?" Barney cried quickly.

"They man back; so I went away."

"Where did you go?" Barney cried quickly.

"The ouse says, 'But no one tame back; so I went away.' "Where did you go?" Barney cried quickly.

"The ouse stant no one tame back; so I went away."

"Where did you go?" Barney cried quickly.

"The ouse says, 'But no one tame back; so I went away."

"Where did you go?" Barney cried quickly.

"The ouse says, 'But no one tame back; so I went away.'"

"Where did you go?" Barney cried quickly.

"The ouse says.' There I lived until water from each tame."

"The ouse says.' The re I lived until water from each tame."

"They man back; so I went away."

"The ouse says.' The re I lived until water from each tame."

"They man back; so I went away."

"The "Because." Rev. Mr. Tiffin of Blyth, silk except imported in father of the groom, performed the embroidered garments. ceremony, and was assisted by Rev. J. and Mrs. W. D. Mills.

E. J. Millyard of Sarnia Central Methodist Church. The groom is assistant favored. Coral, deep orchid, golden maize follow flesh color in popularity.

E. J. Millyard of Sarnia Central Methodist Church. The groom is assistant maize follow flesh color in popularity.

CARNOCHAN-WANKEL.

watched from a very pleasant vacation with her friend, Mrs. Crelli on Ingers of a very happy event was the soen of a very happy event at high noon on Wednesday, Sept. 6, were all liked.

Miss Morris, Elmwood avenue, who has been summering at Clifton Springs. N. Y., arrives home before the and of the month. She is making a good recovery after her recent illness.

Mr. G. W. Hofferd of the Normal School staff. is spending a few weeks at Clifton Springs. Mrs. Hofferd, who accompanied him there, motored home him week from Minnecog. On her way she spent several days in Tor
The parkinson.

Wakke, West Goderich street, Saforth, who crelin in figure of a very happy event at high noon of Wednesday, Sept. 6, who well liked.

AFTERNOON COATS.

Coats for afternoon wear feature on straight practical macro of the friend, Mrs. J. T. Parkinson.

Mr. G. W. Hofferd of the Normal School staff. is spending a few weeks are carried abouguet of Ophelia roses and maldenhair ferm. During the signing of the register Mrs. E. W. Edwards so for the crops, and maldenhair ferm. During the signing of the register Mrs. E. W. Edwards so for the crops, and maldenhair ferm. During the signing of the register Mrs. E. W. Edwards so for the crops, and maldenhair ferm. During the signing of the register Mrs. E. W. Edwards so for the crops, and maldenhair ferm. During the signing of the register Mrs. E. W. Edwards so for the crops and maldenhair ferm. During the signing of the register Mrs. E. W. Edwards so for the crops and maldenhair ferm. During the signing of the register Mrs. E. W. Edwards so for the crops and maldenhair ferm. During the signing of the register Mrs. E. W. Edwards so for the crops and maldenhair ferm. During the signing of the register Mrs. E. W. Edwards so for fitten properties when their second daughter the lands and held them. The dropped to his kneed borne. The dropped to his kneed borne in a Chippewa show." Barney said.

The dropped to his kneed borne. The dropped mow." Barney said.

The dropped to his kneed borne. The dropp way she spent several days in Toronto with her daughter, Mrs. Torrence Beardmore, with whom she spent the summer at Minnecog.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Ashplant, Wellington street, accompanied by Mrs.

WILLIAMS-FLITTON.

Simcoe street, Wednesday evening, co-ordinate action and speech on the Mr. and Mrs. J. Ward of Tecumseh avenue have returned home from a trip to the coast. Their grand-daughter, Miss Thelma Beatrice Dyer, accompanied them, and will remain here for the winter.

Simbos street, Wednesday evening, when their eldest daughter, Irene, became the bride of John Edwin important part in the perfection of this tube now can claim a share in the completion of the talking movie film.

Were present, and the ceremony was were present, and the ceremony was the is Dr. Lee De Forest of New in the condition and speech on the silver screen. The man who had an important part in the perfection of this tube now can claim a share in the completion of the talking movie film. Miss Kathleen Durkin, 313 Hill street, has returned home after spending six weeks in Chicago and at Lake Christie, Mich. During her visit in Chicago she was the guest of her aunt, Mrs. L. Barcus.

Mrs. George Fraser was the hostess of a handkerchief shower, given Thursday afternoon in honor of Miss Third Street, and the ceremony was performed under an arch of asters and honeysuckle. The bride, who was given away by her grandfather, and honeysuckle. The bride, who was given away by her grandfather, which ceremony was performed under an arch of asters and honeysuckle. The bride, who was given away by her grandfather, who is prepared to exhibit what he terms his "phonofilm." by which the characters on the screen are made to talk at the same time. With him, however, in this endeavor to produce a talking film have been other inventors. Most famous among them have been C. Francis Jenkins of Washington, D. C., and Prof. Joseph T. Tykociner, of the University of Illinois. Fannie Grindley, a bride-elect of next week. Mrs. E. V. Buchanan is entertaining Friday in Miss Grindley's honor.

Fitton, ordere of the bride, attended the groom. A wedding supper was next week. Mrs. E. V. Buchanan is served after the ceremony. The groom's gift to the bride was a Hudhonor.

Fitton, ordere of the bride, attended versity of limitos.

These two inventors have already produced instruments, the principles of which seem to have been co-ordinated into the ultimate invention of materials. Mr. and Mrs. William Heaslip of New York have been visiting the former's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sneil, Bruce street. They are returning home by way of Beamsville, where they will visit Mrs. Heaslip's parents.

Soli Coat. To the berdesmaid a nated into the ultimate invention of De Forest. The Jenkins apparatus is said to be based on the principle of transmission of pictures by wire-ses, Miss G. Lewis, Miss G. Stanton, Miss L. Smith, Miss O. Nickle, a vies may be transmitted from a central broadcasting station, just as are concerts, into the homes of those who came a region property of the eventual property of the second property o parents.

The choir of the Robinson Memorial Methodist Church, of which Mr. W. J. Lince is president, and Nelson Andrews feature of the evening was the booby own a radio movie receiving outfit.

Jenkins has been experimenting for more than 20 years on the various a honeymoon trip to Toronto, the stages of motion picture exhibition.

city.

THE FIRST RULE IS TO CONCENTRATE YOUR THOUGHTS ON WHAT YOU WANT! NEXT I GOTTA TRANSFER MY THOUGHTS TO MUTT AS HE'S THE BOSS! HERE GOES:

left to wait; for you!'

Newest For Lingerie

grin." Miss Anna Boyington of the Central Baptist Church, Sarnia, sang "Because." Rev. Mr. Tiffin of Blyth, Cether of the Central Baptist Church, Sarnia, sang "Because." Rev. Mr. Tiffin of Blyth, combined the sand-made or salk except imported hand-made or salk except imported hand-made or favored. Coral, deep orchid, golden recognize her callers.

"I said you might be—any one!" That's been what's troubled you, make the property of the property

Tailored styles with little trim- there good results?' ming are preferred. The trimming is often of two-toned ribbon twisted the seance was over. into flowers or bows; lace is used

TALKING movies have become an assured success through the aid;

The little vacuum tube, which of radio!

(Continued From Our Last Issue). | Barriev made no comment, and the

"He had a boat; he wants to say was a humble man; I took fish on hooks and in nets.' Barney wrote out his next question mikweniman no nossan gaie nin- Yes, I did, Miss Carew. gaian?"

"He wants to say," replied the voice, "I have never heard of father." 'Ninga?" "He says, 'Yes.' He says, 'Mother knew; mother came to shore bearing child: not born child,' he says: 'she was very sick. I took her in canoe, that is." "What did he do for my mother?"

"He says, 'Took her to my house in the lonely place where was woman, my wife.' He says, 'There boy was born; you stayed there." "What happened to my mother?" "She was very sick; but she did not die; she went away." "When?" "At the moon of the wild rice gathering.

"When she went away, he means?" "Yes."

"In the moon of the breaking snow-

"What year?" The medium made no direct ancontinued: "He says that all summer she fed the baby at her breast fill she went sick again. He wants till she went sick again. He wants __"how every one must admire you to tell you that she said, when she only more for that! Besides, my ney?" went away, she surely would return. people are to blame." He says, 'There I lived until water lingerie is crepe-back satin, came back; so I went away."

"They must be. We both of us He snatched his hands apart behind the soft and beautiful, as well "Where did you go?" Barney cried know together that my people—my him and struck them together before Deeper colors are expected to be an apparent effort of memory to and they knew it.

CHAPTER XIV

both sat down. "Do you want to tell me thought about it?' "You mean whether I believed those before saying it aloud; "Maneto o were the circumstances of my birth? back, though Noah Jo waited there "Who could the Indian be? Noah

> "I suppose so." He stood up and, turning his back to Ethel, he strode away, as he had freezing again."

a habit of doing when beset by emo tion. hadn't occurred to me then that I-

"What, Barney?" "That I might have been born on the Rock, Miss Carew. "Barney!" Ethel rebuked him by his own name gently. "Barney!" "You can't want me to call you-" we, Barney?"

"I can't?" "Ethel!" he said, hardly whisper- still clenched behind him. ng it; but she heard. "Ethel!" he than I ever had in all my life beelenched his hands behind him, and fore." she stepped farther back. the way I was born, I believe!" "Let's believe it, Barney!

"Miss Carew!" "I don't mind believing it, Barney! It doesn't change you! Except to own people, and you trusted me make you finer!' "Finer?

"How do you mean?"

characterized the presence of the any of my family; you hadn't even I think." "control." Mrs. Davol slowly sat heard of them before you met me. "No; no; no" he tried to deny upright and gazed dully about like It was what you were—because you her; but she only smiled up at him an ordinary, over-fed woman making were that baby born on the Rock; and said:

Ethel. "Did you get satisfied? Was there good results?"

sne recailed, gazing up at him with so plain that I loved you." eyes suddenly wet. "You are not—so plain that I loved you." not just an outcast born in an In- "So plain!" he deni Ethel realized, with a gasp, that dian hut. I don't think I'd care if furiously, for her. "It wasn't. It's you were!' She had not intended to say what "Oh, isn't it? Do you suppose I'm The home of Mr. and Mrs. August sparingly, and applique designs of "You think we'd better have Kin- she had; but having said it, she ashamed." cheloe arrested?" Ethel asked meant it. She would not care if he y when she returned home. She had; but having said it, she asianted. He dropped to his knees before her were an outcast born in a Chippewa and caught her hands and held them.

Radiation

St. Florentin. In April-the moon yet she delighted too in his courtly Ethel," he said. of the breaking snowshoes," she re- awe of her when he had kissed her room often, you know; with som peated the poetry of the Indian hands and released her, catching his times two families or three; and lo call him that-took her in his boat across the channel to Resurrection had anything like that before." Rock where he and his wife took care of her. You were born there; in September your mother was sick. She did not die—there, at least. But she went away and did not come until winter-"

"November, he meant," Barney supplied. "He spoke of the freezing of water: that is the Chippewa name for November—the moon

"I see. And then, as he was nomad, he went away and took you; he died-now you're coming to fairs you learned from Azen Maboand gave you to Azen without being able to tell anything about you but that the ring went with you. really got quite a lot tonight, didn't

"I've got," Barney said, his hands He moved a little nearer her.

mean from you—Miss—Ethel Carew.
You're a strange girl; the finest and ETHEL." noblest in all the world," he added quickly. "You turned against your "You, Barney? Why not? How before her. could I help it?"

"How do you think about me, Bar-"Think?" he repeated. "I think about you. I can't. I love-love-love you! There, I've said it!" "They must be. We both of us He snatched his hands apart behind "You love me, Barney?" she said.

"Love you! Love you! "I love you, Barney. I've loved you from our first morning together,

"Yes: you've known that, Barney That's been what's troubled you; not "So plain!" he denied, almost not true now!

That's why the house was built and yet, half in fear of himself, half in fear of her, held from her even in knowing what she would not, and ye "But this which we learned to- their rapture. She wanted him wished to ask. Had he been, eve night, Barney, helps a lot; your nearer now; she wanted his arms without love, another girl's? mother came—with you," she added about her, his strength subduing hers. "There are some advanta

"There are some advantages" to the shore there beyond overpowering and holding her; and being brought up in an Indian shack "They've only or "Noah Jo—we may as well breath, after no more than that. of human living is there. What you that—took her in his boat "I've never—" he said, "I've never learn turns you straight either on way or the other; it turned me look for-for you; and to wait ti She bent down and kissed h fingers; so he arose and drew he up with him. For a few moments h neld her against him with her boson trembling on his throbbing breast; then, slipping his arms lower, h lifted her and, laughing at her quiver under his strength, he strode with her a few steps and catching her higher, he brought his lips to her

CHAPTER XV BENNET, having gone directly home from Scott street, had found his grandfather still up and reading. 'Well?" Lucas demanded, thrusting his fingers through his thick hair, as he looked up when Bennet en tered. "Where have you been this fine evening?" Bennet proceeded to relate all incidents in order except for the mention of the spirit who showed the letters "J.Q." Being aware that any reference to Quinlan was unpleasant to his grandfather. Bennet made the most of his satirical description the other "acts" before he told about "Nor I! Nor I!" Ethel cried; she the spook who had displayed a capital caught his hands now and held him J. and Q. This evoked from his grandfather

"You'd not? All the men in the a different quality of attention, but world must have loved you, Ethel, there was no distinct alteration in associated the torch with the word even abroad, Barney, in England and Galilee,

(To Be Continued),

Would you avoid your annual attack of Hav-Fever or Summer Asthma? The remedy is simple, easily taken and harmless. RAZ-MAH is a small capsule readily swallowed.

"ALL THE MEN IN THE WORLD

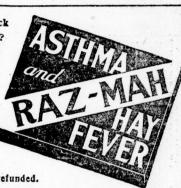

didn't care until you saw me!

France where girls-

YOU.

If it is Hay-Fever, do not wait for the disease to develop. Check it before it starts. RAZ-MAH has belped thousands and will help you. At your druggist's, Guaranteed to relieve or money refunded.

GT PLANGE GREATEST PIANG"

Owing to Lack Of Space at The Exhibition

We have arranged a special display of Gerhard Heintzman Pianos, Player-Pianos and Grands and Phonographs in our warerooms,

222 Dundas St.

We extend to you a cordial invitation to visit us here and inspect

"Canada's Greatest Piano."

GERHARD HEINTZMAN LIMITED 222 Dundas Stree

ARE HERE The finest variety of table grapes, the blue Wordens, are ready. Grown in the Niagara Peninsula, the garden of Canada, they have unrivalled flavor and zest. Have a dish on your table to-night and give your family a treat. Be sure the grapes you buy have the stamp of the Niagara District Growers on the basket. It stands for better quality, careful grading and careful packing.

NIAGARA DISTRICT GRAPE GROWERS LTD. ST. CATHARINES, - - ONT.

You can make many interesting and delicious things from grapes if you bave our booklet. Write for a copy. It's free.

Mr. and Mrs. James McCormick and Leonard McCormick left Thurswill be at home at 462 Simcon street.

Mr. and Mrs. Builer of Walkerville and Mrs. Builer and family of Detroit, lates more to the co-ordination of SHOWING THE WHITE BAND "VOICE PHOTO."

VIRGIL CHEEVES AND (INCOME)

TRAINS.

Trains are featured on nearly all the elaborate evening frocks for the coming season. Sometimes they have the only ornamentation, that is, beading or embroidery, that the frock boasts.

Trains are featured on nearly all the same time and on the same strip of film. It is equipped with a meriman and every sound and the same time and on the same strip of film. It is equipped with a meriman and every sound and the photographed scene on the offilm. In this manner every action.

With the radio transmission idea of Jenkins and the talking idea of Frofessor Tykociner to work on, Dr. With the help of this audion ampliance and every sound are reproduced side before he felt sate in announcing instrument. This sound record is a narrow band, of varying transparency, running along-side the photographed scene on the offilm. In this manner every action.

The intensity of light varies with the speech of the actor. It is for worked on this machine for 20 years cused upon the moving film by a sound picture the rest. This guarbefore he felt safe in announcing his sound-recording instrument. This antees synchronism of sound and