SENSATION FOR MONTREAL SOCIETY

Mixed Marriage Is Exciting Attention.

Montreal, Oct. 12.—Another case in which Cupid set aside man-made and church-made laws, as well as parental objections, came to light here to-day. It is another case of a mixed marriage.

The principals come from prominent families, and the wedding promises to cause as much stir, when the facts become known, as the famous Slaughtness wedding of a year ago.

The heroine is Miss Claire Delisle, daughter of Mrs. Nolan Delisle, of 814 University street, Montreal, one of the oldest and best known families in Montreal. The hero is Mr. Geo. Rowley, Lake Edward, part proprietor of the well-known big fish and game preserves there.

Miss Delisle is a Catholic in religion, and Mr. Rowley is a Protestant. Mrs. Delisle objected to her daughter's determination to marry Mr. Rowley, on account of the question of religion. When the daughter announced her intention of marrying Mr. Rowley in spite of all objections and prepared to go to Quebec to meet him there and have the ceremony performed, Mrs. Delisle gave in, and accompanied her daughter to the ancient city, where the wedding took place. They went to Quebec according to the statement of Mrs. Delisle this morning, because the priests of the diocese of Montreal are forbidden by Archbishop Burchesi to perform mixed marriages.

MORMONS TO BUILD TEMPLE

In Centre of its Colony in Alberta.

Lethbridge, Oct. 15.—Great excitement prevails throughout the Latter Day Saints' colony in Alberta over the announcement by President Joseph F. Smith of the Mormon church at the general conference held at Salt Lake City, that a temple would be built in one of the settlements near Raymond, Alberta. The temple will be similar to those in Utah and all the rites ordinances of the church will be administered within its precincts. It will probably cost about one to two thousand dollars before its completion.

An eminent scientist, the other day, gave his opinion that the most wonderful discovery of recent years was the discovery of Zamboni. Just think! As soon as a single thin layer of Zamboni is applied to a wound or a sore, such

DALHOUSIE

Dalhousie, N. B., Oct. 16.—Mrs. H. A. Hilyard was hostess at two enjoyable functions on Friday last. In the afternoon at 4 o'clock a large number of guests were entertained at a luncheon given by Mrs. David Ritchie. Among those invited were Mrs. David Ritchie, Mrs. Wm. Doherty, Mrs. Thos. G. Scott, Mrs. W. A. R. Cragg, Mrs. P. H. Sheehan, Mrs. W. A. Mott, Mrs. John A. Potts, Mrs. A. Barberie, Mrs. James B. H. Storey, Mrs. J. Barberie, Mrs. Coleman, Mrs. Lamkie, Mrs. J. V. On Friday evening Mrs. Hilyard gave an informal bridge of three tables in honor of Mrs. Potts who is leaving Dalhousie this week with her little family to join her husband in Nova Scotia, where they intend making their home in future. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Sheehan, Mr. and Mrs. Storer, Mrs. Cragg, Miss Josephine Hutchinson, (St. John) Mr. W. S. Smith, Mr. C. H. LaBillette, Mr. Walter Amy and Mr. A. H. Hilyard. The prize winners were Mrs. W. A. R. Cragg, Mr. LaBillette and Mr. Storer. After delicious refreshments were served Hon. Mr. LaBillette speaking for the married lady friends of Mrs. Potts said that it had been Dalhousie's misfortune during recent years to lose many families who had helped to make social life so enjoyable in our town. That Mrs. Potts departure for our social circles would be greatly felt. Her lady friends to show their appreciation of her, had requested him to present her with a handsome cut glass bowl as a souvenir from her Dalhousie lady friends. Mrs. Potts who was very much taken by surprise said how she had enjoyed the few years she had resided in Dalhousie, and that she would never forget the kindness extended to her and to her family. A most enjoyable evening closed with music and singing.

Mrs. J. Barberie reading a most appropriately worded address of regret at losing such a faithful member, and of best wishes for a further period of helpful church work in Nova Scotia.

Mrs. Potts feelingly replied. Mrs. Pott and family have been closely identified with the work of St. Mary's Parish and the removal will be a distinct loss to us, but a decided gain to Tusket.

NEW CARLISLE

Ha! Ha! Ha! Wasn't the Fife and Drum Band a funny thing according to somebody's statement, but "Holy Isaac" it wasn't such a funny thing as we saw when we saw when we cast our eyes on a horse and cart halting at automobile and it chaffed through the back streets of New Carlisle. We always thought an automobile was a horseless vehicle, but according to what we saw, our estimates proved to be incorrect. The following is a good preparation for repairing a bursted tire suitably for returning from a short journey: Remove the tire, stuff same with hay or straw, sprinkle some sand to fill in the space, replace tire, this being done, punch a hole on the outside of the tire and pour in the contents of a bottle of castor oil to assure smooth running.

The Rev. Rural Dean Dunn has returned to Pasphebec after being absent for approximately six weeks. Last Sunday, Rev. Mr. Dunn preached a very pathetic sermon in New Carlisle. He expressed his great joy of once more being among his fellowmen, and expressed his gratitude to the Rev. P. R. Roy, Incumbent of Melborne, and to Mr. Bouillon of Pasphebec for having carried out God's work during his absence. He also expressed his sincere wish to thank all those who helped him by praying for his safety through his long journey of over seven thousand miles.

Alas! It is not safe for any parrots or partridges to go loitering in the woods back of Pasphebec or New Carlisle on Sundays, as guns and gunmen are very numerous, and shooting is very excessive. The commandment says: Six days shalt thou labor and do all thou hast to do, but partridges are not on the list.

Judging by the melodious singing which was done in the Church of England last Sunday, the singing lessons given by Col. Baker must be a great help for voice-training.

FROM the time of Eden, says Keir Hardie, men have been hiding behind women's skirts. But the man who is able to hide himself behind them these days performs a feat entitling him to admiration.

Before you use a new pair of stockings, sew a hook on the top of one and an eye on the other. If you hook them together before they go into the wash, you need not pin them on the line, as they will stay by being thrown across. This arrangement will also save time in sorting the pair afterward.

IS MAN MCCULLEY DEAD, OR IN GASPE?

Wife Claims the Former, Sister-in-law Asserts the Contrary

Lynn, Oct. 14.—Is Wiggin McCulley of this city, who disappeared nine years ago, dead or alive?

This is a question which Judge Lummus has been called upon to decide as the result of a suit brought by McCulley's widow or wife for $500 against the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., in which McCulley was insured for that sum.

The suit was heard last Friday and counsel for the defence presented, as evidence that McCulley is still living, the deposition of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Lizzie McCulley of Boston, who states that in 1909 she met the supposed dead man in Gaspe, Quebec, and talked with him.

Mrs. McCulley claims that her husband is dead, for she has not heard from him for nine years, and his relatives, with the exception of Mrs. Lizzie McCulley, have received no word from him.

Evidence was presented today to the effect that Mrs. Lizzie McCulley drank and smoked cigarettes. Attorney Harney argued that she was not a reliable witness, and Attorney Mayo stated that he had no objection to having the court inquire from Clerk Doherty in regard to his impressions of her. This the court promised to do.
