Appli d in reduction of bank premiess accounts.

The business of the bank for the year shows a most satisfactory increase, and has resulted in a net profit to the shareholders (exclusive of $62,366 70 received as premium

(exclusive of 502,300 70 received as premium up on new capital stock) of 241 per cent upon the average paid-up capital.

Owing to the steady increase in the business of the bank, and of its expanding business of the bank, and of its expanding circulation, your board considered it advisable during the year to recommend to the shareholders an increase of the capital stock to $1,500,000; this recommendation was approved of at a special general meeting heid on 4th April, and the new stock was subsequently allotted to shareholders at a premium of 33½ per cent., based upon the estimated surplus profits as on 31st May. The profits then estimated have been fully earned, and the rest of the bank now stands at 34 per cent. of its subscribed capital.

The capital stock of the company export them to other countries. Besides this they intend acting as general manufacturers, merchants, millers, and forwarders, and to establish in Canada and elsewhere agencies for those purposes. The principal place of business of the company will be in Toronto, and the directors are many of our best known citizens. The en-terprise is a gigantic one, but can hardly fail ultimately to be in a great success. The ranch will be situated near the Rocky Mountains, in one of the most fertile por-tions of the Northwest, and the very best breeds of cattle will be selected to stock it with. This is undoubtedly one the best companies that has ever been formed, and the carrying out of its objects cannot fail to benefit the whole country.

A professional paid executioner like Ketch or Marlwood—a man who could be sent from place to place on his terrible mission—would reduce the operation of the death penalty to a fine art. Such a functionary ought to be added to the criminal could be added to the criminal article of the dominion on the tionary ought to be added to the criminal civil service of the dominion, on the ground of mercy if on no other one. There have been too many scenes at executions in this country lately. If we are to keep the penalty of hanging for murder in our statute book, we should at least provide an executioner skilful enough to know how to do in his awful work.
