Death of Mrs. Wm. Parker

It is our sad duty to chronicle the death of Sarah Jane Taylor, beloved wife of William Parker, who passed away on Friday morning Feb. 26th at her home near Kelliher, Sask. The deceased was un her 54th year and after a week's illness, she was stricken with paralysis, which caused her death. Deceased was born in the Township ot Ashfield, Huron County in 1862, coming to Brooke with her parents in pioneer days of 1875. In 1878 she was married to Wm. Parker, and, until five years ago when the family moved to the west, they resided on the 12th concession of Brooke. Mrs. Parker won the respect of all with whom she came in contact and as an affectionate wife and loving mother her loss will be deeply felt.

She is survived by four sons and two daughters; John, Robert and Charles, settled near their father, and Russell, Mary and Ethel at home; also by her father Robt. Taylor of Brooke, six brothers, William of Appin, Ont., James of Perch, Ont., Robert of Watford, Benjamin of Alberta, Eli of Brooke and Mason of Moore, and one sister, Mrs. Henry Ormerod, Alvinston.

The funeral took place on Monday March 1st.
