PEACE IS DECLARED.

London, June 1.—Peace has at last arrived and London is jubilant. On Saturday evening Lord Kitchener called to the war office that the British delegates had agreed to the Boer terms, and that he expected the documents to be signed that night.

The agreement was signed at midnight Saturday. The British delegates have issued a proclamation terminating a number of civil proclamations of the Boer government, issued in October 1899, at the commencement of the war.

TERMS OF PEACE. London, June 2.—In the house of commons today, the first lord of treasury and provinces, Mr. A. J. Balfour, announced the terms of peace in South Africa as follows:

The Boer forces lay down their arms and hand over all their rifles, possessions and under their control. All prisoners are to be brought back as soon as possible to Africa without loss of liberty or property.

"Dutch is to be taught in the schools, if desired by the parents, and used in court, if necessary. The Boers are allowed for protection. Military occupation is to be withdrawn as soon as possible and self-government substituted.

The Boer forces lay down their arms and hand over all their rifles, possessions and under their control. All prisoners are to be brought back as soon as possible to Africa without loss of liberty or property.

THE COMING CONFERENCE.

It is more than probable that had not Paul Kruger issued his ultimatum in October 1899, the first parliament of Greater Britain would have been long only dreamed of.

There are 25,000 immigrants on the Atlantic due to arrive at New York this week. An extradition treaty has been established between the United States and Chile.

Queen Wilhelmina has contributed $1200 to the fund for the relief of sufferers in Madagascar.

The British naval estimates for this year include a vote of $45,000,000 for the construction of vessels.

Hon. Michael Henry Herbert is mentioned as successor to Lord Pauncefoot as British ambassador at Washington.

On account of drought the Australian wheat crop is short by 10,000,000 bushels. Wheat has gone up 45 cents per bushel to $1.10.

It is not the intention of the postmaster-general to issue a series of King Christian stamps in commemoration of the Coronation.

The greatest nugget ever found in the Klondyke was taken from a hillside claim near Dawson last week.

There appears to be no want of activity in the iron and steel trades, and the prospects are that the high pressure will continue for a year or more, at any rate.

There are 24,000,000 tons of iron ore to be mined in the United States this year, and that nearly all the producing iron and steel concerns in the country could in the next twelve months sell thirty per cent more iron and steel than they can produce at that time.

It is stated that all the pig iron in sight has been bought up by the United States Steel Corporation in negotiating for the purchase of 100,000 tons of Bessemer pig iron to be delivered during the second quarter of 1902.
