

is uncertain ; but it is only a question of time when burying grounds, especially near large cities, will be things of the past.

Newbery House Magazine. Guthrie, Farran, Okelen & Welsh, London, England.

The January No. of this magazine is full of useful information and interesting matter, not only for Church people but also for the general reader. The duty of the Church towards the Welch is well and clearly shown in an article by Judge Homersham Cox on "Dissent in Wales." Articles on "Corporate Union," "The Catacombs of Priscilla" in Rome, the expression "Baptism for the Dead," the "Prince Bishops of Germany," and others are all good, while poetry, fiction, music, outlines of sermons, etc., will be found interesting and useful.

The Churchman. New York, M. H. Malory & Co., 37 Lafayette Place, New York. A weekly church paper, now in its 45th year of publication and well known as one of the best church periodicals in existence. Subscription, $3.50 a year, for clergymen, $3.

Santa Claus. 1,113 Market st., Philadelphia, is a welcome visitor each week. Young and old alike can enjoy its pages and glean useful information from them. It is well and carefully edited, and when the first volume is completed and bound it will form an excellent book for young people.

The Missionary Review of the World. Persons interested in missions can scarcely do without this magazine. The January number contained an interesting resume of the life and work of Bishop Crowther, bishop of the Niger Territory, together with a portrait of that most remarkable African missionary. Intelligence from all parts of the world is given in it and numerous incidents useful for missionary sermons and speeches. The printing and general "get up" of the magazine has been greatly improved. Published by Funk & Wagnalls, 18 and 20 Astor Place, New York, $2.50 per year ; 25 cents per single number.

The Magazine of Christian Literature. The Christian Literature Co., New York. A useful periodical, especially for clergymen, who from its pages may cull information upon the great questions of the day, both within and without the Church of England. It also contains each month an installment of a "Concise Dictionary of Religious Knowledge." The articles are eclectic,—gathered from leading Magazines. Reviews and religious periodicals.

Germania. A. W. Spanhoofd, of Manchester, New Hampshire, publishes an interesting periodical for the study of the German language. Each number contains valuable assistance in that direction and conveys a great deal of help even without a teacher.

Biblia. New York and Meriden, Conn., contains every month much useful Biblical information.

RUPERT'S LAND INDIAN INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL, ST. PAULS, MAN.

List of amounts received by the Principal the Rev. W. A. Burman during or since his visit to Ontario and Quebec last year. In furnishing these figures Mr. Burman says:—"The total amount is not large, but I am hopeful that many more friends will yet respond to my appeals. We are much in need of help, as our expenses in the outset are very heavy. Furniture, cattle, horses, food, clothing, all have to be provided. The Dominion Government gives a grant toward furnishing. This help is very acceptable, but it is quite insufficient for our needs. We have received some very acceptable gifts of clothing for which I would gratefully thank the donors. I should like, however, to add that most of our friends have thought only of the girls. The boys, of whom we expect twenty to begin with, have been almost forgotten. Will not some kind friends at once resolve that we shall have some clothing at least for them? Suits, caps, mitts, stockings, shirts, boots, in fact all kinds of boys' clothing will be most acceptable":
