Annual Membership Fees:—Cattle Breeders' $1; Sheep Breeders', $1; Swine Breeders', 50c.

BENEFITS OF MEMBERSHIP

Each member receives a free copy of each publication issued by the Association to which he belongs, starting the year in which he is a member. In the case of the Swine Breeders' Association this includes a copy of the Swine Record.

A member of the Swine Breeders' Association is allowed to register pigs at 50c. per head; non-members are charged $1.00 per head.

A member of the Sheep Breeders' Association is allowed to register sheep at 50c. per head, while non-members are charged $1.00.

The name and address of each member, and the stock he has for sale, are published once a month. Over 15,000 copies of this directory are mailed monthly. Copies are sent to each Agricultural College and each Experiment Station in Canada and the United States, also to prominent breeders and probable buyers resident in Canada, the United States and elsewhere.

A member of an Association will only be allowed to advertise stock corresponding to the Association to which he belongs; that is, to advertise cattle he must be a member of the Dominion Cattle Breeders' Association, to advertise sheep he must be a member of the Dominion Sheep Breeders' Association, and to advertise swine he must be a member of the Dominion Swine Breeders' Association.

The list of cattle, sheep, and swine for sale will be published in the third issue of each month. Members saving stock for sale, in order that they may be included in the Gazette, are required to notify the undersigned by letter on or before the 15th of each month, of the number, breed, age, and sex of the animals. Should a member fail to do this his name will not appear in that issue. The data will be published in the most condensed form.

A number of the institutes have asked for more than four supplementary meetings and arrangements can be made to include these meetings in the regular list, on the understanding that the local institutes pay both the wages and travelling expenses of the delegates while attending the extra meetings.
