

THE LIFE OF JESUS CHRIST, according to the Gospel History, by Rev. A. J. Maas, S. J. Third edition. B. Herder, Publisher, St. Louis, Mo. In-8, cloth. XXXIV-622 p., 2 maps, 8 topographic views and 34 full-page half-tone ill.

The work exhibits great discernment and discretion, a power of condensing and exposing very briefly, and desire to avoid all display. It is beyond praises in this regard though perhaps only the careful student will appreciate this rare merit.

The ordinary reader will miss the flowing paragraph of Giekie, Farrar and other writers of the Life of Christ, but the simple Gospel text as presented with brief clear exposition of the chief commentaries are of far more real value than any adventitious ornaments of style and literary caper. The utter absence of any controversial term marks the book as the fruit of unbiased, calm study and the author's modesty evidently equals his learning. Our busy clergy will find the book a vesy usefull one.
