The advertisements of Mr. B. L. Beard will be found to contain many suitable offers in the line of Stamps. Stamps on sheets, Packets of Stamps, Post-cards, etc., and we think the stand he takes in conducting his business is to be commended, viz., his terms are cash in advance to all satisfaction guaranteed, we would therefore advise recipients of our publication to give this gentleman a fair trial and judge for themselves.

The handsome little booklet of The International Stamp Exchange of Aberdeen, Scotland, should be in the hands of all reliable stamp collectors desirous of joining a good exchange society, and I have no doubt, but what Mr. Alex. G. Iyall to facilitate matters, will forward me a good supply of these booklets which reliable Canadian and American collectors may promptly receive by dropping the publisher of this list a post-card, collectors on this side of the Atlantic will then quickly receive particulars and be able to communicate at once with headquarters.
