

the city of Ottawa, in the Province of Ontario, physicians, have by their petition on behalf of the unincorporated society known as "The Canadian Medical Association," prayed that it be enacted as hereinafter set forth, and it is expedient to grant the prayer of the said petition: Therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:

1. The said Adam T. Shillington, Robert Wynard Powell, Frederick Montizambert, Henry Beaumont Small, and John D. Courtenay, and all other members of the said present unincorporated society, together with such other persons as become members of the corporation, are hereby constituted a corporation under the name of "The Canadian Medical Association," hereinafter called "the Association."

2. The objects of the Association shall be the promotion of the medical and allied sciences, and the maintenance of the honour and interests of the medical profession, by the aid of all or any of the following:—

(a) Periodical meetings of the members of the Association, and of the medical profession generally, in different parts of Canada or elsewhere.

(b) The publication of such information as may be thought desirable in the form of a periodical journal, which shall be the journal of the Association.

(c) The occasional publication of transactions or other papers.

(d) The grant of sums of money out of the funds of the Association for the promotion of the medical and allied sciences in such manner as may from time to time be determined.

(e) And such other lawful things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

3. The Association may make such by-laws and rules, not contrary to law or to the provisions of this Act, as it may deem necessary for the government and management of its business and affairs, and especially with respect to the qualification, classification, admission and expulsion of members, the fees and dues which it may deem advisable to impose, and the number, constitution, powers, and duties of its executive council, or other governing or managing committee, and of its officers, and may from time to time alter or repeal all or any of such by-laws and rules as it may see fit.

4. Until altered or repealed in accordance with the provisions thereof, the existing constitution, by-laws and rules of the said unincorporated society, in so far as they are not contrary to law or to the provisions of this Act, shall be the constitution, by-laws and rules of the Association.

5. The present executive council and other officers of the said unincorporated society shall continue to be the executive council and officers of the Association until replaced by others in accordance with the constitution, by-laws and regulations aforesaid.
