

USE

THE EARLY SUSPENSION POST CARD HOLDER.

Patented in United States,
Canada,
Great Britain,
France

A UNIT
WHICH MAY BE INTERLINKED
INTO SERIES
OF ANY LENGTH

Impossible for the stock to fall out
No springs to grip and mutilate the cards
Stock can be easily removed because of
Slant base which elevates front card
They Display full surface of card and at the same time Serve as a Rack from which to sell.

THEY FIT ANYWHERE

OVER A MILLION IN USE

Early "Ideal" Holders have the endorsement of the leading Publishers and Jobbers as the most practical and cheapest method obtainable for display of Post Cards, which also provide storage for duplicate stock.

Made for Horizontal and Vertical Cards.

They hold 25 cards ; are packed ten in a box ; weigh only a half-ounce per unit, and are rust-proof.

$3.00 per Hundred Units

Ask Your Jobber for Them

Prizes of $100.00 Within Your Reach

Many reports have come to us of unique and attractive applications of Early Holders. We are eager to know and show how fertile minds have applied this most popular Holder according to their needs. We therefore offer for photographs of the five best applications, the following :—

$50.00 as first prize ; $20.00 as second prize ; $10.00 as third prize ;
$10.00 as fourth prize ; $10.00 as fifth prize.

Contest Closes Dec. 31st, 1907 Decision by Three Impartial Judges
JOBBERS WANTED IN EVERY CITY

The Earl J. Early Novelty Co.

PHILADELPHIA, U.S.A.

75 Yonge Street, Toronto, Ont.

Agents :

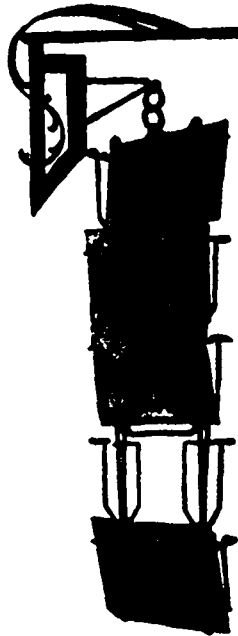

Warwick Bros. & Rutter, Toronto Valentine & Sons Pub. Co., Montreal

Copp, Clark & Co.
Toronto

T. C. Allen & Co.
Halifax

W. C. MacFarlane
60 Front St. W., Toronto

Thompson Stationery Co.
Vancouver

Double display and capacity from a narrow strip or partition with an Early adjustable bracket and swivel hooks.

Any spot that will hold a nail will hold Early Holders, linked into chains of any length.

