A HUME RULE SCHEME.

BESTORE AN IRISH PARLIAMENT IN DUBLIN-O'BRIEN STILL REFUSES TO WEAR PRISON GARMENTS.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.-T. P. Gill, M.P., telegraphs from Dublin to the Tribune that a telegraphic river before that a river that a river be sub-Tory Home Rule scheme will shortly be sub-mitted to the British Cabinet by important members of the party. Mr. Gill has seen a draft of the scheme. He says the idea is to stablish in Ireland a strong centralized secutive depending immediately on the secutive Government and Parliament which Oneen's Government and Parliament, which have full power of legislation, but no effective control over the exacutive. This, it is hought, can be effected by a blunt proposal, sich shall have an effective ring shout it to store the Grattan Parliament. A hold and stensive creation of Liberal and even Nafignalist peers will gild the pill. Mr. Parsell and Sir T. Esmonde, for instance, would a very material addition to the upper ouse. The Nationalist must be allowed to tel themselves strong in Parliament, even if they do not absolutely control it. The ecret of the strength and independence the executive will be found in the permanent taxes to be voted by the Imperial Parliament as a concomitant condition of the restoration of the Irish Parment. This will be variable only by reguar act and no such act will be passed against the will of the Government. It will be definitely understood from the first that ministers will not feel in any way bound to resign in consequence of an adverse vote. They will acknowledge no responsibility, except to the Lord Lieutenant. It is feared that Mr. Goschen will be strongly opposed to the system of permanent taxes. It will be argued: first, that it is necessary to prevent the imposition of protective duties; and, secondly, that the scheme of land redemption cannot be worked without it. We have this scheme as yet only in outline, but these are the main features of it. The landlord will be bought out with bonds, secured on the ordinary revenue, but they will not be encouraged to hold their bonds, lest they should fear the appearance of pensioners. As far as possible the bonds will be taken up by the savings bank and so will become popular securities. Meanwhile the land bought from the landlords will be surrendered entirely to the tenants with no troublesome mortgage charges but a fairly heavy tax will be paid on all land values to be paid by the freeholder. With unexpropriated landlords, of course, some sort of arrangement will be come to. It is intended to make this process of redemption gradual. The farmers whose holdings are redeemed will then be separate in interest from those who are still paying rent, and a fairly atrong Conservative party will gradually come into existence. The great landlords, too, will be urged to secure themselves substantial denesnes in a ring fence if possible, so as to return, or rather regain, their hold on the country. Perhaps the new land tax can be confirmed to land held in hand, which is freed from the curse of dual ownership. An important question not yet settled is how the executive is to be supported, especially against any acts of Parliament that might be carried against them. The House of Lords could not be thoroughly trusted. It is proposed to make a new use for the Privy Council. It might be suggested that as a committee of the Privy Council now exercises judicial functions for India and the colonies, another committee might very well be appointed to revise the acts of all Colonial Legislatures, to a lvise the Crown but cting them in a more judicial temper perhaps than is possible for the Colonial Socretary to perform -in short, some of the constitutional functions of the Supreme Court of the United States. Ireland would be brought under the same rule, and there would be nothing invidious in the position. It is believed that the scheme, as a whole, would meet with the support of many Home Rulers, those especially who want above all things to get rid of the Irish members from West-minster and are disgusted with Mr. Gladstone and Mr. Morley for giving up the point. Indeed it is not improbable that Mr. Morley himself would accept it. Mr. Chamberlain's set, of course, would oppose it with all their

WHAT GOSCHEN SAYS.

LONDON, Nov. 5 -Mr. Goschen, in a speech at Bath, last evening, said the Government only suppressed incitements to crime. The only reason he could see for the Upposition's charge against the Unionists of suppressing political opinion was that they effaced the old landmarks of morality and issued new charts showing what was right and what was wrong. With reference to the work of the coming session, he said the Government intended to introduce an frish land bill, and a large English local Govenment measure. They intended to deal with those questions as speedily as possible. They would also deal with the parliamentary pocedure and financial reforms.

ME WEARS HIS OWN CLOTHES YET.

DUBLIN, Nov. 5 .- The Tullamore prison authorities have ordered that William O'Brien thall wear the uniform prescribed by the regulations for convicts.

DURLIN, Nov. 6.—M. O'Brien resisted the attempt to force him to put on uniform in the Tullamore jail to-day. The priton docfor then directed the governor to desist on amount of the unfavorable state of Mr. O'Brien's health.

DILLON'S ADVICE.

Mr. Dillon spoke at Castlerea to-day. He entreated his hearers to swear with him that as long as life and liberty remained they would do everything in their power "to avenge Mr. O'Brien and to make suffer the hatful class who consigned this beloved and gilted Irishman to a felon's cell." The Tory ress and the landlords, he said, had certainvaruck a heavy blow when they removed Mr. O'Brien, but everyone with an Irishman's bkol would solemnly vow to strike back barder. The police did not interfere.

PEACE AND HOME RULE.

GETS OF MR. ANDREW CARNEGIE HOPEFUL

FOR IRELAND'S CAUSE. PHTSEURG, Pa., Nov. 5.—Mr. Andrew Camegie has been entertaining here in a very plemant way the members of the English Page Commission: The visitors have spoken quite freely on the aubject of Home Rule for liciand. M. B. Proband, a member of Par-liament for Glasgow, said:— Home Rule for Ireland means much more than literally appears on the surface. It means the same og for the United Kingdom. It means that there is to be no separate government for Ireland, no separation from the government of Great Britain, but only local self rule. With Home Rale accomplished, the first decisive step in national reform will have been made."

John Inglis said:—"It will come without the necessity of a finit to arms, without the necessity of a popular uprising or by overt acts. It will merely be the peaceful triumph of demo-

PRINCIPAL FEATURES OF A TORY PROPOSAL TO LORD STANLEY OF PRESTON TO BE GOVERNOR-GENERAL-SKETCH OF HIS PUBLIC CAREER-BED RIVER VALLEY RAILWAY-A COM-PROMISE.

> TORONTO, Ont., Nov. 2. - The following special cable appears in this morning's Globe: -LONDON, Nov. 1.—A rumor is current and is LONDON, Nov. 1.—A rumor is current and is mentioned in the provincial press that Sir John Saville Lumley will be succeeded in the British embassy at Rome by Lord Lansdowne and that Lord Lansdowne's successor will be Lord Stanley of Preston. The latter appointment is possible, though I have heat d nothing pointing to its probability. Lord Stanley is of little value to the Tory party here. He was recently shelved in the House of Lords, and the Tories des re now to get him out of the Cabinet. He might make a parable figurehead for Can. He might make a passable figurehead for Can-ada, but he is certainly a man of lower calibre than most of the recent governors.

The Lord Stanley alluded to in the above despatch was formerly known as the Right Hon. Colonel Frederick Arthur Sanley. He is the younger brother of the present Earl of Derby. He was born in 1841, educated at Eton, and in 1858 entered the Grenadier Guards, whence he retired with the rank of captain in 1865. He subsequently became colonel of the 3rd and 4th battalions of the King's Own during 1866-8. He represented Preston in the Commons as a Conservative from 1868 to 1885 North Lancashire, and in 1884 and 1886 the Blackpool division of Lancashirs. He was Civil Lord of the Admiralty in 1868, financial secretary to the war office from 1874, secretary to the treasury in 1877, and secretary of state for war in 1878-80. In the Conservative ministry of 1885 he was secretary of state for the colonies. The chief incident of his administration was the recall of Sir Charles from Bechnaualand. In August, 1886, Sir F. Stanley became president of the board of trade, and was a state of the board of trade, and was the resease as March Stanley became president of the board of trade, and was raised to the peerage as Baron Stanley of Pres-

There has been some discussion here in the press over the failure to sign the contract for the Red River railway. The opinion is pre-maturely expressed in some quarters that the contest is now virtually ended. The failure, however, confirms the view of the best authorities here that the settlement of the question will be found in a compromise between the three parties concerned.

ALASKA'S INDUSTRIES.

INTERESTING ACCOUNT BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE TERRITORY.

WASHINGTON, D.C., Nov. 1.-A. T. Swieford. Governor of Alasks, in his annual report says the white population is principally confined to the southeastern section, embracing the so-called "thirty mile strip" of main land, which includes less than one-twentieth of the whole territory. The population of the territory is estimated as follows :- Wnites, 5,000; Creoles (practically white), 1,800; Aleuts, 2,300; natives (partially educated and civilized), 3.500; total civilized population, 12,600; uncivilized natives, 26,800; total population, 39 400. All the Creoles and Aleuts can read and write in the Russian or their own language, while not a few of the natives other than Aleuts are to all intent civilized. The Governor says that $10,000,000 is a conservative estimate of the value of all texable property in the territory, exclusive of the Alaska Commercial Company's establishment on the Seal islands. The increase, he says, will be rapid as soon as Congress, by the necessary egislation, gives encouragement to the settlement of public lands. The report says that very little has been accomplished or indeed attempted in the way of agricultural development. This notwithstanding there is a very considerable acreage of tillable land in touth-eastern Alaska with a soil that produces a most luxurious vegetation, the fact being that no one comes into the turnitory with the that no one comes into the tarritory with the begin. belief that either the soil or the climate is adapted to agriculture or horticultural pursuits, but the few experiments which have been made leave no room for doubt that all been done in the way of stock raising, although the winters of conthrastern Alaska are much milder than those of Montana, Wyo.

will be $5,500,000 and the stockholders will be the leading members of the syndicate and others. Mr. Barker will probably be the vice-will subming and Dakota, and the seasons altogether president, and Batker Brothers & Co. will subwell adapated to this industry. Un the subject of mires and minerals the governor says that wonderful results are being produced. The great mine and mill on Douglas island have been in steady operation during the year, turning out gold bullion at the rate of $100,000 per month. At one point a Boston company is erecting a mill with 170 head of stamps. Several mills have been put in operation in the Silve- Bow lasin and large quantities of high grade ore have been found. Rich discoveries have also been made in the region of Berner's Bry, and rich placer diggings have been refort d found on Shetando River or Forty Mile Creek. The governor says it is reported that Mr. Ogilvie, who was sent out by the Dominion Government to locate the boundary line between Alaska and the North-West ary line between Alaska and the North-West the Barker syndicate from securing the necesterritory, claims that Shetando river is in sary capital. The scheme is a deep laid one, British territory, and has suggested on the but the members of the syndicate may that it strength of his report that his Government is will not succeed and they can get all the money likely to attempt next summer the collection of miners' licenses provided for in the Canadian law. Any attempt of the kind will be resisted by the miners, a large majority of whom are American citizens, and if persisted in will certainly end in bloodshed. He suggests that Congress appoint a commission to definitely settle the boundary line. THE FISHERIES.

The product of the fisheries for the year the Government estimates at 1,150,000 pounds of canned and 14,000 barrels of salted salmon. The whole fisheries have produced in the neighborhood of 600,000 gallons of oil and 250,000 pounds of bone. The ancust catch of cod amoun's to about 5 000 000 pounds. The total value of the product of the Alaskan tisheries for the year is estimated at $3,000 000.

THAT CHINESE-AMERICAN BANK.

Mr. Wharton Barker Says the Concessions Were Made to Him-Still Covident of Success-Nygolations Concend-ed and the Enterprise to Proceed

PHILADELPHIA, Ps., Oct. 31.—The Chinese-American Bank and the concessions granted by the Chinese Government to the syndicate of Philadelphiacapitalists, headed by Mr. Wharton Barker, of the banking house of Barker Brothers & Co., are again attracting attention. Some of the capitalists interested in the scheme are agitated over the report connecting the Vanderbilts with the concessions. The Messrs, Vanderbit promptly denied through the Herald any such connection. The atten-tion of Mr. Wharton Barker was collect to these denials by your correspondent yesterday. MR. BARKER'S STATEMENT.

"The statement that the concession for the Chinese American Bank was asked for in behalf of Mr. Vanderbilt by my representatives in China," Mr. Baxter said, "is, to the best of my knowledge, absclutely false. The scheme has naturally enough aroused the envy of certain English interests simply because it is American. To those who can look behind the scenes and who know the route taken by the bigin agreement, with Vanderbilt's name inserted, on its way from Shanghai, via London it is clear enough that there are Americans who would rather see it fail than succeed.

"In disprcof of the assertion that I was trading on or with the name of Vanderb.le, I have the Chinese documents containing the name of Wharton Barker, the English translations of the same documents certified to as a creet by the English Secretary of the Viceroy, Li Hung Chang, and also in favor of Wharton Barker, and telegrams while the negotiations at Tientsin were in progress and addressed to me by the Vicercy. Add to these the presence in this country of the special envoy. Mr. Kie Tchang, who came accredited to me and not to Mr.

"It is an error to speak of the concessions as the Mitkiewicz concessions. They are granted to me for myself and associates. Mr. de Mitkiewicz simply acted as one of my agents in China. He has had no hand in the negotiations in this country, which have been conducted solutions to the provided myself. ducted solely by the special envoy and myself.

NEGOTIATIONS PRACTICALLY CONCLUDED.

Mr. Barker declined to say anything else on the subject, but he admitted that the nego-scribe for a large block of the stock.

Mr. John Wanamaker will be interested as a tockho'der, but not as a director, either of the Finance Committee or of the company which will control the Chinese-American Bank and the various enterprises in China. Since Mr. Wanamaser participated in the movement to defeat the plans of the syndicate which sought to obtain control of the Pulladelphia Gas Works, he and Mr. Barker, who was associated with Thoma: Dolan and others, have not been the best of friends.

JEALOUSY IN EUROPE A member of the Barker syn icite said today that the attacks on the Chinese American Bank came from European capitalists who desire to secure the concessions themselves. Failing in their efforts to induce China to revoke the concessions, they now seek to throw discredit on the scheme, hoping by that means to prevent they want. About three-fourths of the amount needed has already been raised in this city and New York, and Mr. Barker says that he can get the balance without much trouble.

NOT WILLING TO INVEST. There is a queer story in connection with the scheme which is now going the rounds in financial circles in this city. It is vouched for by all who have told it, and is not denied by one of the gentlemen whose names are mentioned.

Mr. Barker approached a prominent Western capitalist who has been in this city for the past capitalist who has been in this city for the past few months to make arrangements for building a new railroad near Atlantic City. Mr. Barker asked the Western man to take an interest in the scheme, but received an emphatic "No!" for an answer. He inquired the reason, and the Western mansaid that he had no faith in the scheme and believed that he had no faith in the scheme and believed that it would'nt amount to anything. He gave a number of reasons for his belief, one of them being that the European capitalists could supp'; China with all the money she needed at much lower rates than the Americans could, and that the Chinese would prefer to call upon the former. Mr. Baker then, it is said, requested the capitalist alluded not to state his objections to others, because he was trying to raise sub-

After this interview another capitalist, a prominent Philadelphia manufacturer, who is associated with Mr. Barker in several enterprises, and who had partly agreed to subscribe $100,000 to the scheme, backed out.

Mr. Barker will sail for China in a few months, and Mr. Simon H. Stern, who represented the syndicate in the preliminary negotrations, will probably accompany him.

THE VANDERBILTS AND THE CONCESSIONS. The connection of the Vanderbilt name with the Chinese concessions dates back several years. When General James H. Wilson went to Ohina in 1885 it was generally believed that he represented Russell & Co., of New York, and through them the Yanderbilts. The General made strenuous efforts to secure the concessions which Wharton Barker has succeeded in getting, but he failed to accomplish his purpose and returned to this country. The Vanderbilts declined to say whether or not they desired to secure the concessions, but the report was generally be-lieved. This accounts for the mention of the Vanderbilt name at this time.

Altoons, Pa., the trick was discevored, but the messenger permitted him to remain in the car until the Quaker City was reached. The total until the Quaker City was reached. The total cost of the trip was $9.65, and McCauley won
