

APPENDIX I RESOLUTION

THE SECOND UNITED NATIONS TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE CONFERENCE

BELIEVING that the continuation and extension of the technical assistance programmes of the United Nations and of the specialized agencies are of basic importance to economic development and to effective international co-operation in raising standards of living in under-developed countries,

NOTES WITH SATISFACTION that, by indicating the contributions listed in the schedule appended hereto (Annex) each of the governments contributing for the second financial period, ending 31 December 1952, has declared that it will, so far as its competent constitutional bodies authorize, and, where necessary, appropriate funds, make available such amounts to the Expanded Programme of Technical Assistance during the second financial period of its operation;

CONFIRMS the financial arrangements contained in resolution 222 A (IX) of the Economic and Social Council, as approved by resolution 304 (IV) of the General Assembly and by the Final Act of the United Nations Technical Assistance Conference of 1950 together with the resolution of the General Assembly of 12 January 1952 which approves resolution 400 (XIII) of the Economic and Social Council;

CONFIRMS that the fund contributed shall be placed in the Special Account for Technical Assistance for Economic Development administered by the Secretary-General in accordance with the resolutions referred to above;

URGES that contributions for the second financial period of operation be made available as soon as possible to the said Special Account.
