

ARTICLE 4

Subject to this Convention, a person specified in Article 3, regardless of nationality, shall be subject to the obligations of the legislation of a Party and shall be eligible for the benefits of that legislation under the same conditions as the citizens of that Party.

ARTICLE 5

1. Unless otherwise provided in this Convention, benefits acquired by a person described in Article 3, whether through totalizing under the provisions of this Convention or exclusively under the legislation of one Party, shall not be subject to any reduction, modification, suspension, cancellation or confiscation by reason only of the fact that the beneficiary resides in the territory of the other Party, and they shall be paid in the territory of the other Party.

2. Benefits payable under this Convention to a person who is or who has been subject to the legislation of both Parties, or to the dependants or survivors of such a person, shall be paid in the territory of a third State.

PART II

PROVISIONS CONCERNING THE APPLICABLE LEGISLATION

ARTICLE 6

1. Subject to the following provisions of this Article,

- (a) an employed person who works in the territory of one Party shall, in respect of that work, be subject only to the legislation of that Party, and
- (b) a self-employed person who ordinarily resides in the territory of one Party and who works for his own account in the territory of the other Party or in the territories of both Parties shall, in respect of that work, be subject only to the legislation of the former Party.

2. An employed person who is covered under the legislation of one Party and who performs services in the territory of the other Party for the same employer shall, in respect of those services, be subject only to the legislation of the former Party as though those services were performed in its territory. This coverage may not be maintained for more than twenty-four months without the prior consent of the competent authorities of both Parties.

3. A person employed in the territory of one of the Parties in a government service of the other Party shall, in respect of that employment, be subject to the legislation of the first Party only if he is a citizen thereof or if he ordinarily resides in its territory. A person who ordinarily resides in the territory of the first Party but
