

Canadian side to the USSR not later than October 1 before the exchange year begins. The Soviet side, for its part, will advise the Canadian side of accommodation not later than November 15.

4. The Soviet side agrees to receive annually up to 20 citizens of Canada, at the sending sides expense, to study at the Moscow Institute of the Russian Language by Correspondence.

5. The Canadian side agrees to accommodate annually two Soviet persons to teach Russian language in Canadian institutions of higher education (the financial conditions will be agreed upon later) and to take necessary measures for the realization of this programme.

6. The Soviet side expressed its readiness to receive annually at its expense for a term of 45 days up to 5 Canadian teachers of the Russian language to attend summer courses of the Russian language at Moscow State University.