

- (b) whether goods that are exported from the territory of the requesting Party have been lawfully imported into the territory of the requested Party and the nature of the customs procedure, if any, under which the goods have been placed.

5. Each Customs administration shall, on its own initiative, or upon request, supply to the other Customs administration reports, records of evidence, or certified copies of documents giving all available information on transactions, completed or planned, that constitute or appear to constitute a contravention of the Customs law of the other Party. All relevant information for the interpretation or utilisation of the material shall be supplied at the same time.

6. In serious cases that could involve substantial damage to the economy, public health, public security or any other vital interest of a Party, the Customs administration of the other Party shall, wherever possible, supply such information and intelligence on its own initiative without delay.

ARTICLE 4

Notification

On request, the requested administration shall notify a person, residing or established in the territory of the requested Party, of any formal decision concerning that person taken by the requesting administration, in application of Customs law.

Automatic Exchange of Information

The Customs administrations may, by mutual arrangement in accordance with paragraph 2 of Article 18, exchange any information or intelligence covered by this Agreement on an automatic basis.

Advance Exchange of Information
