

- (ii) if a portion of the sentence has already been served, a statement by a public officer specifying the portion of the sentence which remains to be served;
 - d) in support of a request from Canada relating to a person who has been convicted but not sentenced, the original or a certified true copy of the order of arrest and the original or a certified true copy of a document establishing that the person has been convicted and that a sentence is to be imposed.
2. In the case of a person convicted by default the requirements relating to the submission of documents referred to in subparagraphs a and b of paragraph 1 shall apply. If, however, it is established that the charge, containing notice of the date and place of trial, or the judgement rendered by default has been personally served on the person sought, and that person has not appeared or availed himself or herself of the rights to appeal and retrial, the requirements relating to the submission of documents referred to in subparagraphs a and c of paragraph 1 shall apply.
3. All documents submitted in support of a request for extradition and appearing to have been certified or issued by a judicial authority, a prosecutor or public officer the Requesting State or made under their authority shall be admitted in extradition proceedings in the Requested State without having to be taken under oath or solemn affirmation and without proof of the signature or of the official character of the person appearing to have signed them.
4. Documents submitted in support of a request for extradition are not required to be authenticated or otherwise certified.
5. Any translation, produced in the Requesting State, of documents submitted in support of a request for extradition shall be admitted for all purposes in extradition proceedings.

Additional Information

If the information provided by the Requesting State is not sufficient for the Requested State to make a decision under this Treaty, the Requested State shall ask for the necessary additional information, setting, if it so wishes, a reasonable time limit for its transmission.

ARTICLE 10

Provisional Arrest

1. In case of urgency, the competent authorities of the Requesting State may apply in writing for the provisional arrest of the person sought. Such application may also be made through the International Criminal Police Organization (Interpol).
