

Mrs. Francine Fournier, Secretary General of the Canadian Commission for the United Nations Educational Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO). Ottawa, Ontario;

Lieutenant General (retired) Reg Lane, National Chairman, Federation of Military and United Services Institutes of Canada, Victoria, British Columbia; and

Dr. Elinor Powell, Canadian Physicians for the Prevention of Nuclear War, Victoria, British Columbia.

These appointments have been made following consultations with the Leader of the Official Opposition and the Leader of the New Democratic Party, in accordance with the CIIPS Act (Bill C-32).

CIIPS was formally established on August 15, 1984 with the support of all parties, and reports annually to Parliament. The purpose of the Institute is to increase knowledge and understanding of the issues relating to international peace and security from a Canadian perspective, with particular emphasis on arms control, disarmament, defence and conflict resolution.

In making these appointments, Mr. Clark also expressed his appreciation to the outgoing directors for their contributions.
