

Clause 13. Section 59.

(1) Where any court in Canada has made an order requiring a respondent to pay an amount to his spouse, former spouse, child or other dependent and the court has issued to the Minister a notice in the form prescribed by the regulations requiring an order of the respondent that shall be paid to the person named in the order an amount specified in the notice, the amount so specified or any lesser amount specified by the Minister shall, if the Minister is satisfied, be deducted either in a lump sum or in instalments from any amount that is or is about to become payable to the respondent under the Act, and shall be paid to the person named in the order.

(2) Where for any reason a respondent is unable to arrange his own affairs or where he is incapable of managing his own affairs and there is no person entitled by law to act in his stead, the Minister or Finance may pay to any person designated by the Treasury Board in writing payment on behalf of the respondent any amount that is or becomes payable to the respondent under the Act.

(3) For the purposes of this Act, any payment made pursuant to subsections (1) or (2) shall be deemed to have been made to the respondent in respect of which the payment was made.

Financial Assistance

59. (1) Where upon the death of a contributor there is a person to whom all or any part of the amount payable in respect of a contribution is or may be payable, or where there is no such person, or where the amount may be payable to more than one person, the amount may be paid to them under this Act, any amount by which the amount of a return of contribution exceeds the aggregate of all amounts paid to those persons and to the contributor under this Act or the former Act shall be paid to the cost of a contributor whose death occurred while he was a member of the trust, to the estate of the contributor, and in any other case, to the estate of the contributor.

General Provisions

Relative Contributions

60. (1) In this section, "relative" means a person by whom an election under subsection (1) has been made.

(2) Any amount of the cost of the contribution that is the subject of an election under Part V of the former Act shall be deemed to be a contribution made by the contributor.
