

as to the methods of preventing conception and surely if a new method is developed we do not want to have to come to parliament and amend the Criminal Code in order to make that new method legal. Therefore, if you are concerned with regulating the method that it would be legal to prescribe, I would urge the committee to look at the methods other than the Criminal Code, such as the Food and Drugs Act.

The CHAIRMAN: Any other comments gentlemen? If not, the meeting is adjourned until 11.00 a.m. on Thursday.
