

RULE IV.

All questions, unless otherwise fixed by law, shall be determined by a majority of votes.

RULE V.

The President shall preserve order and decorum, and shall decide questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Society.

RULE VI.

That when the President is called upon to explain a point of order, he is to state the rule applicable to the case without argument or comment.

RULE VII.

No amendment to a motion can be received after an amendment to an amendment, unless for the previous question or for adjournment.

RULE VIII.

No alteration can be made to these rules, without two weeks' notice and a majority agreeing thereto, nor any rule be suspended but by a like vote, and for the evening only.
