

Clergyman and one Church, there are 25 Churches and Mission Chapels, 21 Residences, and 11 School Rooms, 10 Missions have been opened to the Indian population, glebes for future endowment have been secured in many parishes, and 15 Clergymen, 13 Catechists and Teachers form the Ministering and Educational body, through whom, from 35 centres, the work of civilization is proceeding in all parts of the Colony.

The Native Indian race numbers 50,000, and the Europeans are scattered over a vast area of many districts, varying in population from a few hundreds to several thousands.

The Colonists are doing their utmost, making efforts with much self-denial, and the poor natives urge us not to desert them.

For the last two years the Bishop has borne personally the risk of keeping up the Mission; and not only has no one good work been allowed to drop, but new work, under circumstances of peculiar interest, has been undertaken, and this appeal is now made to the sympathy of the Church of England, and all friends of civilization, to relieve the Mission from its difficulties, and to further the work of Christ's Gospel in this important Colony of the British Empire.

£2,000 is required in Annual Subscriptions;—and Donations are earnestly sought towards the debt upon the Mission and extension of the work.

Contributions will be thankfully received by—
