

State of the ice—Bone huts—Salmon procured—Land journey with Toolemak—Sledges—Fires—A ball—The knoonik—Return on board—Whale killed—Off Nerlinakto—Captain Parry leaves us—His return and discovery . . . . . 155

CHAPTER VII.

Enter Strait of Fury and Hecla—Land journeys—State of the season—Bears killed—Liddon Island—Amherst Island—Examine state of the ice—A cave—Extraordinary currents—Seek winter-quarters—Igloodik—Ice-huts—An anchor lost—Ships frozen in . . . . . 190

CHAPTER VIII.

Annakto—A man beats his wives—Geographical intelligence—Strangers arrive—White wolf—Sun leaves us for forty-two days—Toolemak's hut—Christmas-day—Distresses of the natives—Effect of the climate . . . . . 207

CHAPTER IX.

Persons of the Eskimaux—Their dress and ornaments—Occupations of the women—Canoes—Sledges—Weapons—Hunting on the ice—Dogs—Land animals—Wolf traps—Fishing—Geographical knowledge—General disposition—Marriages—Estimation of women—Treatment of children—Conduct to the aged, to the sick, and the dead—Superstitions . . . . . 222

CHAPTER X.

New year's day—Anecdotes of bears—The sun returns—Drift wood—A sick woman and child—They die—Visit to the grave—Man eaten by dogs—Kagha—Her death—A theft—Visit distant huts—Specimens of eating—Scurvy—Death of Mr. Elder—Arrangements for Fury to remain another year—Toolemak drunk—Appearance of vegetation—Strangers arrive—Vanity of a woman—Togorlat's death—Toolemak takes leave . . . 275

CHAPTER XI.

Journey in search of a western sea, and return—Arrival of strangers—Fish procured—A river discovered—Mice—Mr. Hoppner's two excursions—Walrus sinks a boat—The ice breaks up—Reasons for the ships returning home—The ships make an offing 300

CHAPTER XII.

Expedition returning—A landmark erected—Account of Igloodik—Drift of the ship—Danger of the ships while driving—Lyon Inlet—Death of Mr. George Fife—His case—The ships drive out of Lyon Inlet—Open water seen, and an offing made—Passage down Hudson's Strait and across the Atlantic—Arrival and hospitable reception at Lerwick . . . . . 320

At day
ships Fu
transport
e Little
On the
eterhead
ere enal
Making
erry's in
ed Firth
m som
eat plen
warded
Orkne
th, whe
to oblig
nd of Se
shallow
We
ceived th
the cour
repose
aving l
was calc
were so
on the
throug